

The Weather

Oakland: Cloudy, cooler tonight; Friday cloudy; light S. W. wind.

Oakland Tribune

LAST EDITION

VOL. LXXXIII—TWO CENTS—SUNDAY FIVE CENTS.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 25, 1915.

18 PAGES

NO. 33.

DEATH NOTE
CLEARS UP
MYSTERY

Letter, Written by Mrs. Riley, While She Kept Vigil Beside Sister

"Glad to Leave Ignorant and Heartless World," Her Message

A letter from Mrs. Jane Riley, written during the time that she sat by the side of the body of her sister, Mrs. Mildred A. Fulton, in the Chestnut street house of mystery, and which has been in the possession of Deputy Coroner Brennan and the police since yesterday morning, clears up a mystery which the authorities have been trying to solve since Tuesday night. Despite the fact that the letter explains away much that has clouded the case, Brennan and the police have refused to make it public. Brennan showed the letter to certain persons, however, and an outline of the contents shows that it was started before the death of Mrs. Fulton and continued almost to the time when Mrs. Riley followed her sister. The letter commences with a statement that her sister Mildred is very kind and that the writer feels that she is going to die. Mrs. Riley continues by saying that she fears to send for a physician or to make the condition of the two sisters known. There is a break in the letter which apparently indicates the passage of some period of time, possibly days, when the sentence occurs, "My sister is dead."

The letter continues: "I am getting sicker and sicker. I cannot stand this. I can hardly hold my head up."

KNOW OF WRONG DOING.

In the letter it explains that Mrs. Riley knew she was not doing the right thing by concealing the fact of her sister's death, but that she did not wish to be taken to the home of her brother in Moorhead, Minn. "Have me buried anywhere," the letter said, "and please bury my dogs with me. I can write no more. My pencil is worn out."

The last words are in a wavering handwriting and may have been written when the woman was already beginning to be overcome by gas.

The bodies of the two sisters were quietly interred today on instructions from Dr. M. N. Fulton, brother of the "woman who is on his way to Oakland. Dr. Fulton is expected here Sunday. He sent a telegram to Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen last night asking Petersen to have the bodies buried and to take charge of the personal effects. Captain Agnew supervised the funeral today.

A checking up of the accounts of Mrs. Riley shows that she had $200 on deposit in the Bank of Italy at the time of her death. A few days before she committed suicide she drew a blank check in favor of her brother, Dr. Fulton, leaving a space for the amount on deposit to be filled in.

GLAD TO LEAVE WORLD.

A second letter scrawled on a piece of note paper was found concealed under a plank at the house of mystery. It read as follows:

"Sunday, p. m. This is to certify that no one at all is directly responsible for my act. I have been prepared for the worst or best. My life is my own and if other humans who have more power than I have seen fit to force upon me a life of suffering and pain that I do not care to go through with, I feel that they and no one else may be held to blame for what I am forced to do. I am glad to leave such an ignorant and heartless world and only hope there is no future life. All I ask or hope for is eternal sleep."

Public Administrator H. D. Mehrmann has applied for letters of administration in the estates of the late Mildred A. Fulton and her sister, Mrs. June F. Fulton, who were found dead in a cottage at 1511 Chestnut street two days ago. Besides several thousand dollars in deposit, the women are believed to have large interests in Wisconsin, their former home. A search will be made for diamonds and other personal property said to have been in their possession shortly before their death.

S. F. Ends Opposition to Alameda Water Plan

SACRAMENTO, March 25.—Opposition to the validation of the Alameda county water district, led by City Attorney Long of San Francisco who feared it would interfere with plans for San Francisco's municipal water supply, was withdrawn today. Senator Strobridge's bill was passed without dispute or negative vote.

State Official Song Wins Votes Overnight

SACRAMENTO, March 25.—Srenuous overnight work by its advocates returned the contest on Senator Scott's bill to make "Love You, California," the State's official song, and which the city by which it was beaten yesterday was reconsidered today there were 25 ayes and 10 noes. After its defeat, 20 to 17 yesterday, several women lobbyists spent a busy afternoon and evening and won over enough of the opposition to insure its passage.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK

AUSTRIA LOSES 72,500 SOLDIERS

GEN. FRENCH CONFIDENT

"Victory Ours," He Tells Frederick Palmer

(By FREDERICK PALMER.)
(Correspondent of the Associated Press)

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, March 25, via London, 12:31 p. m. — It was in the drawing room of the house in which he makes his office that Field Marshal Sir John French, commander in chief of the British expeditionary force on the continent, received the correspondent today and discussed the military situation. Before the conversation was over the British commander, answering a question concerning the result of the war, said: "Indeed, there is no doubt of the outcome. I was never so confident of victory as I am today."

"I am as confident as General Grant was when he took command of the Army of the Potomac. He kept at it and so shall we."

On a long table before the British commander were a number of maps and reports. Otherwise the man who directs the operations of the British army in France appeared completely disinterested from the details of the different army departments situated in other offices about the town.

CHIEF LOOKS YOUNG.

It was to be observed, however, that the heads of the departments report to Field Marshal French immediately upon a telephone request. "Looking younger, than his photographs make him appear, ready and alert, Sir John showed no signs of the strain of the last eight months as he stood before his open grate fire and talked of his campaign and the war."

"What were the most important contributing factors making your retreat from Mons secure against overwhelming odds?" Sir John was asked.

"The dogged tenacity of our little regular army, which contested every foot of the ground as we went back," was the answer.

"Not once did our soldiers lose heart. They understood that we were not defeated, but making a strategic retreat before heavy odds, and that all the punishment which they could inflict on the enemy by a cool and stubborn resistance from point to point was no less valuable to the ultimate object than if they were advancing."

HE PRAISES HORSE.

"Their confidence that their turn to take the offensive would come remained unshaken. They were taught in importance was the work of our cavalry in its aggressiveness and alertness in preventing the cavalry of the enemy from getting around us. Our cavalry established a decided superiority over that of the enemy which was of vital assistance."

"And what to you was the most critical moment of all your campaign in France?" was the next question put to Sir John French.

"One would not have been surprised if he had said when his reserves were practically exhausted in the battle of Ypres and Arras, or when the evacuation of our little army might have been realized if our cavalry had not been equal to its task of covering the retreat."

FOE SOUGHT ANNIHILATION.

"On the retreat from Mons at Le Cateau we were in the open country and in a very dangerous position, and the German ambition for the annihilation of our little army might have been realized if our cavalry had not been equal to its task of covering the retreat."

flanks of our steady, disciplined regulars. Few Americans are as familiar with the campaigns of our civil war as is Sir John. He has made a thorough study of them and from them he has drawn lessons which he has found helpful in France.

He mentioned Stonewall Jackson. "To me General Jackson was more like Cromwell than any other leader of history," said the British commander.

"A heroic, martial figure, whose wonderful career came to the happy close a soldier desires in the hour of victory."

"STONEWALL A CROMWELL." "I have followed all his marches and battles with undimmed admiration. He had the religious conviction of Cromwell, his dash and determination, and his ready strategy and the genius of inspiring his troops with his own indomitable spirit of energy."

"But of all your commanders, Robert E. Lee, in his patience, his resource, his poise, his soundness of judgment and his possession of the qualities of high command in all emergencies, is foremost, in my opinion."

"A good deal has been said about the novel conditions which trench warfare in this war has developed. Was the next thing said by the correspondent, 'That it changed the quality of a soldier?'"

HUMAN NATURE UNCHANGED. "No," he replied. "Human nature remains the same, and it is the man who gives and takes the blows, whatever the nature of his weapons. Courage, discipline and tenacity are still the dominant elements of success."

"And the guns—it has been repeatedly stated that this has become a war of artillery."

"I think there has been an inclination to exaggerate the importance of artillery," Sir John answered. "Artillery has increased in relative importance. It may take a dozen shells to get one man, and one bullet will set one man."

"The weapons which decide the day are the rifle and the machine gun, and the infantry is still the queen of the battles."

PAYS TRIBUTE TO ENEMY. As a soldier speaking of his enemy, Sir John French was far from depreciating the fighting qualities of the Germans. To the troops of Emperor William he paid a soldier's chivalrous tribute.

"Yes," he replied, "in many instances their conduct has been bad, very bad; I know that it has been. This declaration was made with firm conviction."

"But it has varied. It has seemed to depend upon the commanders. If a commander approves of outrages, they occur. Yes, in the main, German conduct depends upon the character of the German generals."

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss R. Tanzer, who filed a $50,000 damage suit against James W. Osborne, former assistant district attorney of New York, for alleged breach of promise to marry, was held today for the action of the grand jury on the charge of using the mails to defraud.

Did Osborne send his thrills chasing along the spinal columns of Miss Tanzer and her three ailed sisters with a handful of diamonds? Did he entertain the Tanzer ménage with a lengthy paenegyric upon the loveliness of Miss Rée? Did he thus spend three-quarters of his evenings for two months last fall and winter and spend meanwhile countless dimes in Bronx motion picture theatres?

For four hours United States Commissioner Houghton and an enthusiastic crowd of men and women listened to evidence on the question of the identity of the "dear Oliver" Osborn.

BARBARY COAST TO FAIR MAID FACING HOLD SWAY AGAIN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Quietly and without so much as a whisper of publicity, the old Barbary Coast is coming into its own. Without clamor, without shouts or boasts or brag, the old tendarion is ablaze with light and wine, women and song and the lid has been lifted. So far only one of the dance halls has been allowed to resume business openly. The Cave, at Kearny and Jackson street, has been permitted to have dancing and to serve liquor to women. True, it is not right on Pacific street, the technical Barbary Coast, but it is believed that one by one the dancehalls will be allowed to resume their old method of doing business, and will be permitted to sell liquor to the followers of Jove.

For more than a year it has been rumored that the Barbary Coast was to be opened when the Panama-Pacific Exposition's gates were swung wide and the avalanche of visitors began.

REVOLUTION MENACES CHINA

Outbreak Inevitable in New Republic of Orient

Big Fund Being Raised in California for Rebellion

Subscribing a fund of half a million in California alone, the Chinese of the United States are, according to the Chinese Nationalist League, directing what may at any time break out in a desperate fight against the Yuan Shi Kai administration. Much of the money was subscribed in this city, where young China headquarters are maintained.

"Within six months the world may expect another revolution in China," declared Dr. C. Y. Fung, president of the Chinese Nationalist League, today. "During the past year Chinese in California have raised a fund of $500,000 to finance a rebellion against President Yuan, and money continues to pour in."

Work is, he declares, being carried on throughout China and the United States in preparing for the fight against the present administrative head, and it is declared, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first Chinese president, and known as the "George Washington of China," is directing the move. Dr. Fung was secretary to the former Chinese president, and later, when the Sun government lost power, came to America.

REVOLUTION INEVITABLE. "A second revolution," declares the ex-secretary, "is inevitable. Chinese in San Francisco, Oakland and throughout California are contributing liberally to a war fund. Many of them are giving percentages of their monthly salaries to the cause."

"Some are giving half of their monthly salaries, others are giving a quarter and a third. The raising of a war fund for a revolution was begun a year ago after President Yuan summarily dismissed the parliament on the last Chinese in California have contributed $500,000. This has been sent to our agents in China. More than $1,000,000 has been raised in the United States."

Dr. Fung is in constant communication with Dr. Sun, he says, and is advised of the activity of the revolutionists in China.

"I learn from Dr. Sun's letters that from 70 to 80 per cent of the population of every province in China favors the revolution. We anticipate no difficulty in carrying out our plans once the revolution is begun."

40,000 CHINESE IN STATE. "Here in California there are 40,000 Chinese. Fully 50 per cent belong to the Nationalist League and the other 40 per cent many are in sympathy with the movement and are contributing generously to the war fund."

"Many of the Chinese in this state are training for military service so that they can hurry back to China when the revolution starts and enlist in our forces."

Several heated meetings have been held in Oakland when the plans have been discussed, and large sums, it is declared, have been subscribed on this side of the bay.

Wong Buck Yon, vice-president of the Nationalist League and a prominent local Chinese, now in Chicago on the last leg of a tour of the country, said by Dr. Fung to have been taken in the interests of the revolutionary party. Wong first went to Cuba, then to New York and to Canada.

Socialists Lose in School Board Action

Superior Judge Donahue today sustained a demurrer to the complaint brought by the Socialist party of Alameda against the Board of Education in which it was sought to mandamus the board into giving its permission for the holding of meetings in one of the schoolhouses in that city without costs to the organization.

SIX GENERALS FALL DURING SIEGE OF CITY OF PRZEMYSL

Conquest of Fortress Releases 180,000 Russians for Services in Other Operations in Great Struggle

BULLETIN.

LONDON, March 25, 8:55 p. m.—The British admiralty stated this evening that they thought the German submarine U-29, which recently sank four British and one French steamer in the English channel and damaged three other vessels, had been sunk with all hands.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, March 25, 4:45 p. m.—The Evening Chronicle publishes a dispatch from Bucharest, Rumania, saying the Turkish government recently decided to surrender Constantinople and the Dardanelles to the attacking fleet. The surrender was all but arranged, the Chronicle says, when at the last moment it was blocked by Germany.

"The peace party forced a vote at a recent cabinet meeting to send emissaries, one of whom was the American Ambassador, Henry Morgenthau, to the Dardanelles to negotiate with the commander of the allied fleet for the surrender of the straits and of Constantinople," says the Chronicle. "Just as everything seemed settled, the German governor, Lyman Saunders, heard of the plan and nipped it with the threat of court-martial for all concerned."

Ambassador Morgenthau made a visit of two days to the Dardanelles last week.

PRZEMYSL LOSS 72,500: AUSTRIA

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, via Paris, March 25.—The Austrian government admits, according to dispatches received here from Vienna, that its losses in the surrender of Przemyśl were six generals, four locomotives and five thousand tons of coal.

"During one of seven unsuccessful German counter-attacks made on Tuesday near Karaka (Northern Russian Poland, eight miles south-east of Przemyśl), on the left bank of the river Omulaw, in an effort to regain captured trenches, we completely cut up two German battalions and put a third to disorderly flight."

"Throughout Tuesday a German squadron of seven battleships and twenty-eight torpedo boats cruised along the Polanag coast (Russia on the Baltic), firing on the coast villages. The squadron disappeared at 8 o'clock in the evening."

ENORMOUS BOOTY TAKEN.

LONDON, March 25.—The Petrograd correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company says the following:

PARIS FEARS ZEPPELIN RAID

PARIS, March 25, 1:35 a. m.—In definite reports of another impending Zepppelin raid on this city again were received tonight, but a general warning was not given to extinguish all the lights.

Aeroplane reconnoitered for two hours the territory in the vicinity of Paris, but found no trace of a German aerial squadron.

MOSLEMS SUSTAIN HEAVY LOSS

LONDON, March 25, 1:15 p. m.—Reuter's correspondent at Tenedos Island forwarded the following today:

"According to reliable information obtained from refugees from the Dardanelles, the Turks suffered enormous losses in the attack of the allied fleet on March 18. The greater part of the fortresses and powder magazines was reduced."

"The Turkish submarine defenses are declared to have lost their military value, owing to the mines breaking drift."

"Two British destroyers on Wednesday penetrated the straits to a considerable distance."

Mine sweepers alone maintain naval activity in the Dardanelles, but as the ineffectual storms in those waters seldom last longer than seven days a resumption of the bombardment is expected at any time and may possibly take place today. It has been just one week since the last engagement."

Petrograd reports the first strategic fruits of the capture of the Galician fortress of Przemyśl in increased violence against the Carpathians, where large captures of prisoners are claimed. The only other item of interest this morning from the eastern front is the Russian claim that they have pushed back the Germans on the Pilica river at a point where Field Marshal von Hindenberg, the German commander, is expected to make his new rush against Warsaw.

Head of "New Love" Cult Held for Death

ALLIANCE, O., March 25.—As a result of the death here today of Miss Amy Tanner, 23, B. A. George, alleged to be the head of the "New Love" cult, was taken into custody, and 10 persons, five of whom are women, are detained as witnesses pending an examination into the death of Miss Tanner. According to the police, the headquarters of the cult in an elaborately furnished house in the residence district, have been under surveillance of the police and Federal authorities for some time. The coroner gave an unofficial verdict that Miss Tanner's death was due to some powerful drug administered before she was removed to a hospital.

Indian Gets Life for Killing Homesteader

FRESNO, March 27.—Jeff Lewis, an Indian woodchopper, pleaded guilty here this morning and was sentenced to San Quentin prison for life for the murder of "Aligator Jack" Henderson, hunter and trapper, February 21 in the mountains of Fresno county. The Indian made a statement, according to the authorities, that he was hired by Rayton A. Douglas, 26 years old of Oakland, to kill Henderson so that he might marry the young widow of the victim. Lewis says he was paid $100 to fire the fatal shot in the mountain cabin. Douglas was released from jail, as the sensational story could not be confirmed.

AMERICANS FIGHT FOR LIVES

Women Are Forced Into Slavery and Butchered by Fanatics

Assyrians Barbarously Treated in Kurd Uprising

By Associated Press.

TIFLIS, March 25 (via Petrograd and London).—Telegrams and letters reaching here from Urumiah in North-western Persia describe the situation of the American Presbyterian Mission stationed there as desperate. Turkish regular troops and Kurds are persecuting and massacring Assyrian Christians.

Harry P. Packard, the doctor of the mission station at Urumiah, of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian Church, risked his life in a successful effort to prevent a frightful massacre at Geogtapa, where 3000 Assyrians made their last stand. They had fought for three days, and their ammunition was gone. At this juncture Dr. Packard, unfurling an American flag and advanced between the lines, his act resulted in the saving of 200 of the Assyrians. Who had been burned in a church.

15,000 IN DANGER.

Fifteen thousand Assyrian Christians have taken refuge under the protection of the American mission station, while 2000 are at the French mission. A dispatch received at Tiflis from Urumiah yesterday declared that 70 Turkish regular troops had entered the mission, hanged the orthodox bishop, Mar Elias, and four orthodox clergymen and beat and insulted a missionary named Allen. Shortly before the Turkish troops entered the mission from the French mission and executed in spite of the fearful pleas of the nuns.

At Urumiah, the Kurds were particularly cruel. This was a case of a total of 103 Assyrian villages to hold out and it was occupied a month ago. The Kurds ordered all the Assyrian males into the streets. Led them in groups of five, marched them to the graveyard and killed them barbarously to the last boy. Girl babies are killed or women are executed with great atrocity while the younger women were carried away as slaves.

As a result of the war 15,000 Assyrians are taking refuge in the Caucasus, some 17,000 are described as in imminent danger as the Turkish Allocations, while 20,000 are dead or missing. Furthermore much property has been destroyed. The Assyrians fought their assailants bravely and as long as they had ammunition they were victorious.

The missionaries are untiring in their

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 1)

Students Petition for Principal's Dismissal

BERKELEY, March 25.—Petitions for the removal of Principal C. L. Biedenbach of the Berkeley High School are being circulated by students of the institution today. Up to noon today, after less than three hours of securing signatures, 200 of a student body of approximately 1200 had signed the petition, which will be presented to the board of education at its meeting, March 31.

The circulation of the petitions is the culmination of a long war between the student body and Biedenbach. The petitions appeared shortly after the weekly issue of "Black and White," an abridgement of the Berkeley High School yearbook, on the front cover a cartoon showing Biedenbach blown into the air on a cork labelled "faculty control," which he had attempted to insert into the book of a bottle labelled "student body." On the first page of the publication is an article in which it is declared that the students want control of all student body meetings, control of all rallies games and appropriations, all of which has been denied them under the regime of Biedenbach.

The board of education is said to be evenly divided in its feeling regarding Biedenbach and his administration of the high school. School Director Roy I. Woods, who has brought the matter of Biedenbach's alleged maladministration at the last meeting of the board, but delayed such action at the request of the student body.

French Woman Shot to Death as Spy

By Associated Press.

LUNVILLE, France, March 25, 10 a. m. Marguerite Schmitt, a French woman sentenced to death as a spy after being court-martialed, was shot yesterday after the troops of the garrison had been drawn up to witness the execution. By her own admission at her trial the woman accepted 200 francs from the Germans to enter the French lines and obtain information.

CHILD GETS SICK

CROSS, FEVERISH
IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach or Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged with waste. The liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, bad breath, restless, doesn't eat heartily, and you can't get him to try any other children's ailments, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all the clogs will be gone. The bowels and fermenting gas will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is needed to save. It should be the first treat for a sick child's "sickness."

Beware of counterfeit fig syrup. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

COUNTY TO PROVIDE FOR SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Assurance that the sum of $25,000 would be included in the county budget for the construction of an auditorium at Lafayette school, Eighteenth and West streets, was given by the supervisors, members of the board of education who they appeared before them this morning.

Dr. A. S. Kelly, president of the board, stated that the abolishment of the property tax had decreased the school funds of Oakland approximately $50,000 and that the auditorium work would be postponed.

Unless the county would provide for

Men,

Cl. 1

Clothes

Spring color-gray and the finished blue models for styles for the es.

30⁰⁰

Take a peep at our new Shirts

0.00

MADE
CLOTHES
13TH AND 14TH
N D-

Figure 1. The effect of the concentration of the Agrobacterium suspension on the transformation efficiency of Agrobacterium strains. The number of transformed cells was determined by the number of colonies on the selective medium. The results are the mean of three independent experiments. Error bars represent standard deviation.

OTTOMAN FANATICS DUTCHER WOMEN

Americans Battle for Lives in Barbarous Holy War.

(Continued from Page 1)

efforts to help the people and they are spending money to this end freely. In Armenia they are dispersing the equivalent of $400 daily. Disease is prevalent among the refugees.

The situation at Urumiah alleged to have been taken up with Turkey by the United States Secretary Bryan has telegraphed American Ambassador Morianthau at Constantinople to seek the protection of the missionaries and the refugees. Previous dispatches from Bulfinch, Persia, have described the danger at Urumiah, but none of them has given so much detail as the message from Tiflis.

The American missionary station at Urumiah is maintained by the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America. The station was established as long ago as 1855; its control was transferred to the Presbyterian Board in 1911. The work has gone on there without serious interruptions or mishap to the missionaries. The force normally at Urumiah consists of five clergymen and one physician with their wives and four single women.

PACKARDS COLORADANS.

DENVER, March 25.—Dr. Harry P. Packard, mentioned in dispatches from Tiflis as having risked his life to prevent a massacre of native Christians at Urumiah, formerly lived at Pueblo, Colorado. Mrs. Packard is a daughter of the Rev. Frank T. Bayley pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church of Denver.

Letters received by relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Packard several weeks ago described conditions in Persia as critical.

HUNDREDS SEARCH FOR LOST COIN IN STREET

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Nearly fifty persons with their eyes glued on the ground, rushing here and there and searching the gutters between Geary and Market streets, this morning, gave mute testimony to the fact that Harvey L. Cooper, a guest at the St. Francis Hotel, had lost roll of bills. The currency, amounting to $177, had slipped from his pocket while he was walking from Geary to Market street. He chanced to mention it to several passersby and soon the word passed from lip to lip until a small army was hunting for the lost money. The police were notified and several officers joined in the search, but if the currency was found the fact was not reported.

FACES SAD, WATCH CASK OF WHISKY WASTE

Faces sad and nostrils distended among the curbstone warmers of Broadway and Twelfth street shortly before noon today when high proof whiskey slowly trickled from a barrel on a wagon of an express company. Crowds followed the spilled ingredients of many a cocktail to Franklin and Thirteenth streets, where the driver of the wagon finally discovered that his load was lighter. A trail of whiskey and alcoholic fumes greeted him and with sad voice he was heard to mutter: "If it had to be so, I wonder why I couldn't have had a drink."

MOSLEM LOSSES IN STRAITS HEAVY

Fortress Reduced by Fire of the Allied Fleet. Says
Report.

(Continued From Page 1)

warfare on British ships, but apparently without success. The diplomatic situation in the Near East is still a source of keen interest to observers in London and the impression is growing among them that Bulgaria must take the first definite step before any other Balkan state will enter the arena.

OSOWETZ ATTACKS DEVELOP.

PETROGRAD, March 25, 11:30 a. m., via London, 1:40 p. m.—The fortress of Osowetz, where the German bombardment continues, remains today the key to the situation on the German front, according to the best opinion of Russian observers. Both to the north and south of this point, in the Augustow and the Gmulin regions, respectively, the Germans are developing lively attacks to prevent the Russians from encircling the Osowetz fortress or from occupying the town of Seuzyn. This location is directly behind Osowetz on the East Prussian frontier and its occupation by the Russians would obviously compel the Germans to abandon the fortress.

Official reports of fighting at Varkarask and Jednorozek, towns within ten miles of the East Prussian frontier, indicate that the Germans at least have not been successful in penetrating the Russian advance in the direction of Omolett.

The Petrograd military authorities today call attention to the retirement of several German corps to the westward and to meet activities on the part of the allies.

The Russian occupation of Domanevitz has an important bearing on the operations in the Pilica district, since this town commands a strategic position on the left bank of the Pilica river, as well as a bridge and a junction point of five roads. In the extreme north the Russians are continuing to advance from Tauraggen in the direction of Langazorgen, in spite of the increasing German resistance.

Heavy snowstorms south of the River Dniester have caused a temporary lull in the Russian operations against the right wing of the Austrian army, but elsewhere on the Carpathian front the effect of the fall of Przemyśl has been noted, according to dispatches received in Petrograd. In a rapid Russian advance toward the Carpathian passes.

THERE'S SONS INHERIT ESTATE WORTH $10,000

The will of the late Caroline L. Osgood, dispose of an estate valued at more than $10,000 was filed for probate today in the Superior Court. The entire estate is bequeathed to her three sons, Frederick S.; Howard L. and William J. Osgood, share and share alike. The sons are named joint executors.

MAJOR-GENERAL STORY DEAD.

PASADENA, March 25.—Major-General John P. Story, former chief of artillery of the army, died at his home here today, aged 74 years. He entered the military academy in 1841 and retired June 19, 1905.

GIBSON RESIDENT, LAWYERS DECLARE

No Question as to Validity of Candidate's Home. Conclusion of Three.

The following communication is self-explanatory.

Oakland, Cal., March 23, 1915.
Hon. Frank M. Smith, City Clerk, Oakland, Cal.

Dear Sir: A question having been raised as to the eligibility of Willis E. Gibson to the office of mayor of the city of Oakland, Mr. Gibson realizes that it is important that the matter should be decided without delay, and, therefore, has requested me, as his attorney, to communicate with you in regard to it, and to ask you to take such steps as will lead to a speedy determination of the question. If, as charged, he is not eligible, he has no desire to see the office to which he is not justly entitled.

Mr. Gibson came to Oakland in September 1904, and ever since has been, and still is, a resident of that city. During all of the intervening period he has been duly registered as a voter in the City of Oakland, and has there voted at every election. At all times his legal residence has been in Oakland and not elsewhere, and at no time has he ever acted inconsistently with such intent. It is true that his wife and children have through considerations of health lived, during a portion of the time, on property owned by him near Niles. That, however, was after Mr. Gibson and his family had been living with him for some years in Oakland, and when the family moved to Niles, he for the purpose of maintaining his legal residence in Oakland, which the law permitted him to do, changed his place of abode to, and registered as a voter from the Hotel Athens in this city. During the entire period he has actively followed his profession as manager of a business college in the city of Oakland.

It, therefore, appears that there has been a coincidence of act and intent on the part of Mr. Gibson in the selection of his legal residence.

Under such conditions it is submitted that in view of the elementary rule of law pertaining to such questions, that the intent of the party must prevail, the following provisions of the Political Code control:

Sec. 23, Sub. 3. A residence cannot be lost until another is gained.

4. The residence of the father during his life is the residence of the unmarried minor child.

5. The residence of the husband is the residence of the wife.

7. The residence can be changed only by the union of act and intent.

Sec. 1239 Sub. 8.—If a man have a family fixed in one place, and he does business in another, the former must be considered his place of residence; but any man having a family, and who has taken up his abode with the intention of remaining and whose family does not so reside with him, must be regarded as a resident where he has so taken up his abode.

The mere intention to acquire a new residence, without the fact of removal, avails nothing; neither does the fact of removal, without the intention.

In view of the circumstances of this case, I should be of the opinion that the legal status at the present time, of Mr. Gibson is that of a legal resident of Oakland, as that term is used in the Oakland charter, and that the fact that during a portion of the period since Mr. Gibson's acquisition of a domicile in Oakland, his family resided elsewhere, would not alter that legal status.

May I ask that you take this matter up with your legal adviser, the city attorney, at as early a date as possible?

Yours truly,
THOMAS C. HICKLEY.

I hereby concur in the foregoing opinion.

FRANK J. GORDON.

I, too, concur in the foregoing. It might be suggested that I have, on looking further into the legal proposition, discovered a case in New York entitled, "In re Newman," and reported in the 192d volume of the New York reports at page 238, which decided that a person may have two residences, one of which may be deemed his domicile and legal residence where he votes or exercises his duties as a citizen. This case was quoted in "People vs. Putnam County," Surrogate Court, 35 Hun 218, 220. Comment was made upon the fact that in New York and other states it has become quite customary for persons to have two places of residence. It is true that the intention of the law is to the legal residence. The question of Mr. Gibson's intent to retain Oakland as his legal residence has been emphatically borne out by his manifold activities in the city of Oakland, and the further fact that he has at all times registered and voted herein. This leaves absolutely no question as to his intention.

EDWARD R. ELIASSEN.

"City of Oakland, March 25, 1915. Mr. Thomas C. Hickley, Attorney, Oakland, Calif. Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of the 23d inst., in reference to the eligibility of Willis E. Gibson to the office of mayor of the city of Oakland, and in reply thereto I desire to state that I have carefully reviewed the list of candidates to be voted for at the nominating primary election to be held on April 20, 1915, and Mr. Gibson's name appears upon that list as a candidate for mayor.

"I desire to advise you further that the sample ballot is now being printed and Mr. Gibson's name appears upon such ballots as a candidate for mayor.

"Very truly yours,
"FRANK M. SMITH,"
"City Clerk."

ASSISTANT SECRETARY VISITS MARE ISLAND

VALLEJO, March 25.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt and his party visited the Mare Island navy yards this morning, making the trip on the destroyer Paul Jones. Roosevelt consulted with the navy officers as to the building at Mare Island of two torpedo boat destroyers and a fuel ship, and was taken on a tour of inspection through the marine barracks and to the site where new buildings will be erected at a cost of $200,000.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Winston and Postmaster and Mrs. R. W. Walker of Vallejo. The party returned to San Francisco late this afternoon.

BELGIANS ON DUTCH SHIPS CAUSE SEIZURE

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, via London, March 25.—Referring to the seizure by German submarines of two Netherlands steamers, the Batavier V and the Zaanstroom, in the English channel, the Hamburger Nachrichten says the principal reason for this course was the presence on board the vessels of a number of Belgian soldiers who had been captured from concentration camps in Holland and who intended to rejoin the Belgian army by way of England.

SEE ROOS BROS.—HEESEMAN'S WINDOWS

Underwear for MEN

NOT merely one line, nor two lines, but EVERY Standard, Dependable make of Men's Underwear---and in every tested weave and fabric, too!

—And you Men that wear Union Suits will find YOUR favorite make HERE, all priced down by Our Price Policy.

TAKE your pick of these prime favorites—"Rockinchair"—"B. V. D."—"Wilson Bros." (Klosed Krotch)—or "Olus" in Spring Athletic styles, at ONE DOLLAR per SUIT—And the very fashionable Manhattan slide-back at $1.50.

THIS WEEK-END we'll give you a Special—The famous "GLOBE" Tailor-Made, Trouser Seat, UNION SUITS in lustrous, Silk Lisle, all styles—long sleeves or quarter sleeves, long drawers or knee drawers—a regular Three Dollar union suit—at PER SUIT $2.50

SEE OUR WINDOWS
FOR the most wonderful Shirt values in this world—plain or pleated $1 in EVERY SIZE at

On Cuffs Spring Sox Silks
FOR the man who wants separate FASHION demands colors—Here they are—New Blues, Grays, Pearls, Champagne, etc., in Lustrous Fiber Silk, at 25c cuffs, we have TWO pairs of cuffs with each shirt, plain or pleated, at $1.50

Your Straw Hat
IS IN Our Hatery—It's a peach! New in Shape—New in Weave—New in Brim. But it's priced right down to . . . $2

THIS IS THE HOME of HART SCHAFFNER & MARX GOOD CLOTHES FOR MEN
Roos Bros. (HEESEMAN'S) "The House of Courtesy" CLOTHIERS TO MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN
Three Stores—At Your Service Market at Stockton Washington at 13th Shattuck at Center
SAN FRANCISCO OAKLAND BERKELEY
Open Saturday Till 10 p. m.

U. S. S. GEORGIA SENT TO PROGRESO

American Battleship Ordered
From Vera Cruz to Seat of Trouble.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 25.—Rear Admiral Caperton, commanding the American fleet in Mexican waters, today ordered the battleship Georgia from Vera Cruz to Progreso, where there have been local troubles. His dispatch, reporting the movement of the Georgia, said the port of Progreso still was open.

Secretary Bryan revealed today that in the original report of the murder of John B. McManus, an American citizen, in Mexico City, by Zapata troops, the Brazilian minister had notified the State Department also that the American flag was torn from the house and partially destroyed.

The secretary said that a request for reparation for the indignity to the flag was sent at the time, but he did not reveal what form it had taken. He denied, however, that there had been any request for a salute to the flag.

Secretary Bryan said that while regret had been expressed for the killing of McManus he did not recall that any regret had been expressed for the flag incident.

General Carranza telegraphed to his agents here today that he had sent reinforcements to Tampico and that Villa forces had been completely routed at Ebanco after three days' fighting. General Carranza's message follows:

"Tuxpam still is in our possession. At Ebanco, after three days' fighting, our forces completely routed the Villa forces. Yesterday I sent reinforcements to Tampico and will send more. It is necessary that there be no rioting in Yucatan against foreigners. Nationals and foreigners alike are enjoying full guarantees of life and property.

"The situation there is now normal. At Progreso both export and import shipping is now moving. General Alvarado and his sympathy and support of the entire state.

"The departments are considering whether to send an army transport to bring away Americans from the Tampico district if the situation should become acute. There are about 8000 foreigners in that vicinity."

MAJOR'S BOND APPROVED.

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, March 25.—Question of law occupied the morning session of the Terre Haute election fraud case in the United States District Court here today. After the noon adjournment Judge Anderson approved the additional bond of $50,000 offered by Mayor Donn M. Roberts, one of the defendants, who was charged by the court with attempting to corrupt government witnesses.

War Summary

Advices from Petrograd and Berlin today indicate that the struggle in Northern Poland is drawing toward a decisive stage. The Germans, who have been attempting to place the Russian line at Osowetz, are endeavoring to prevent the Russians from advancing to the north and south of the fortress and interposing troops between it and the Prussian border. The official communication from Berlin today states that Russian attacks in this region were repulsed. Petrograd asserts that considerable progress has been made recently and that Russian troops at places are within a few miles of the border.

Another lull has come along the western battle front. There was spirited artillery fighting yesterday, but only small movements of infantry were attempted.

Dispatches from English sources, based on stories of refugees of the Dardanelles, say that the Turks suffered great losses during the bombardment of March 15, the last general attack by the allied fleet.

The fortresses under attack are said to have been reduced in greater part.

The battle in the Carpathians has developed into the most important phase of the land fighting now in progress on either front. Reports from Berlin and Petrograd are incomplete and thus far there are no definite indications which side is gaining the upper hand in the encounter, which may decide the mastery of the Carpathian passes, the gateways to Hungary.

Estimates of the number of Russians freed by the fall of Przemyśl run as high as 190,000, and it is expected that this force will now be sent to the foothills of the Carpathians in Western Galicia to assist the Russian army there.

A dispatch from Athens says the Turks are fortifying positions near Adrianople in fear of an attack by Bulgaria. Heavy artillery has been brought in; a new army is being trained by German officers.

Special Notice to Oakland Folks

We wish to announce we are exclusive Oakland agents for the simple mixture of buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-Ika. This remedy, used successfully for appendicitis, is the most THOROUGHLY cleanser we ever sold. It is so powerful that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. Adler-Ika never grips, is safe to use and the INSTANT action is surprising. Good Brothers, druggists, Broadway and Seventh and Washington and Twelfth.—Advertisement.

BATTLE OF ARRAS WON BY FRENCH

Desperate Fight for Strategic Position Ends Weary Struggle.

By Associated Press.
PARIS, March 25.—An official communication from the War Department gives details of the recent fighting south of Notre Dame de Lorette in Northwestern France near Arras. The struggle centered on the spur of a hill, possession of which was disputed violently for several months, as the position commands three important roads and also the village of Ablain in which the Germans, so long as they retained it, could mass large numbers of reinforcements. On March 17 the war office announced the capture of three miles of trenches on this hill.

The attack began on the afternoon of March 15 when a battalion of the Fifteenth Regiment, under cover of fire of heavy artillery, charged for seventy yards, capturing the first line of the German trenches.

PERSONAL BRAVERY.

"When the smoke cleared our troops were seen to be fortifying the positions with utmost calm," the report says.

"Gathering his scattered forces, the enemy soon made a desperate counter-attack. Hand to hand fighting in the trenches ensued, in which there were many acts of particular bravery."

One exploit recounted is that of a second lieutenant who, left with only twelve men, remained for two hours under heavy fire with only slight protection.

The Germans called out to him to surrender. Drawing his revolver and firing continually, he retreated to the last barricade and was saved by the arrival of reinforcements.

Three successive counter-attacks were made by the Germans, but the French succeeded in holding the ground they had gained. The report says that this action resulted in the capture of the whole spur with 110 prisoners, two rapid fire guns and a telegraph station.

"BREAD OR PEACE" IS TEUTON PEASANTS' CRY

By Associated Press.
LONDON, March 25.—A dispatch from Copenhagen to Reuters' Telegram Company says:

RUB RHEUMATISM PAIN FROM SORE, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Pain Away With a Small
Trial Bottle of Old "St.
Jacob's Oil."

What's Rheumatism? Pain only. Stop drugging! Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" directly upon the "tender spot" and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism and sciatica liniment, which never disappoints and cannot burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic and sciatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. Old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains and swellings—Advertisement.

CARGO CONFISCATION BY GERMANY NOT EXPLAINED

By Associated Press.
LONDON, March 25.—The Times correspondent at The Hague in a dispatch concerning the recent seizure by a German submarine of the Dutch steamers Batavier V and Zaanstroom, which were conveyed to Zebrugge, where their cargoes were confiscated, says:

"The government has received no reply from Germany regarding the request for an explanation concerning the seizure of the Batavier V and the Zaanstroom, and the situation arising therefrom is considered grave."

MACEDONIA LOST SIGHT OF.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, March 25.—A Reuters dispatch from Madrid says the correspondent of that company at Las Palmas, Canary Islands, telegraphs that nothing has been heard of the interned German liner Macedonia, since she slipped out of the harbor there on March 15, but it is reported that she has sailed in the direction of South America to re-load and re-provision from German cruisers.

Hoarseness

A slight tickling in the throat, or on an irritated and more times severe throat troubles are prevented by taking Brown's Bronchial Troches, in use over 60 years. Free from opiates. Sold by all druggists—50c and $1.00 packages.—Advertisement.

PAY ENVELOPE
WEEK ENDING
Mr. Efficient Worker

Big Jobs

—are gained largely by doing common tasks uncommonly well.

But—to do unusually good work of any kind, fitness of body and mind are required.

Food plays a big part in this matter—food that contains true nourishment. And true nourishment—be it remembered—must include certain important elements which unfortunately are often lacking in the ordinary dietary—especially in white bread. These elements are phosphorus, iron, lime, sulphur, etc., stored by Nature in her field grains, and absolutely necessary for building strong, vigorous bodies and active brains.

Grape-Nuts

FOOD

—made of choice wheat and malted barley, affords all the nutriment of these grains, including these important mineral elements, in form for easy, quick digestion. Grape-Nuts food is always fresh, crisp, sweet and ready to eat—with cream or milk.

Thousands have found that a ration of Grape-Nuts each day makes for real progress towards the bigger things of life.

"There's a Reason"

—Sold by Grocers everywhere.

PERUNA NEWS
Mr. R. G. Elliott, Deane, Va., writes: "I discontinued the use of your medicine about two months ago, after taking only two bottles of it, and as soon as my symptoms returned, I considered myself entirely and permanently cured."
"At the time I wrote you, asking for your advice, I was in a terribly wretched and critical condition. My trouble was catarrh of the head. I had no appetite, could sleep but little, had constant headache, and was so dizzy I could hardly stand without support. Upon receipt of your advice I procured a bottle of Peruna and began its use according to directions. As I continued using the medicine, I continued to improve, and I can safely say I am perfectly well once more."
"I think your medicine is the best that can be taken by any one afflicted as I was. By it I believe my life was saved. I feel deeply grateful for the kind advice which you so freely gave."

WIDOW OF SLAIN MAN, ARRESTED, GIVES CLEW
By Associated Press. ST. LOUIS, March 25.—Pursuing investigation of the murder of Richard Randolph, the merchant who was slain in his store here, the police yesterday searched for a friend of Mrs. Della Randolph, widow of the slain man.
Mrs. Randolph, against whom a divorce suit had been instituted, was taken into custody shortly after the murder. The police say she was seen to tear up a note just as they arrived. According to the police this note has been placed together and Mrs. Randolph has admitted it was written by the man they seek.

BOSTON'S AUTO TO BE GOOD ENOUGH FOR SAN LEANDRO?
SAN LEANDRO, March 25.—Will the San Leandro marshal, the tax collector, the night watchman and other officials roll round town in a luxurious "six," or will the municipality take a tip from the mayor of Boston and provide a purely military auto? In determining to acquire an automobile for the use of the municipal officers, the town board at its last meeting received bids which ran all the way from a sumptuous and expensive touring car, in which the town officers could pay their calls de luxe, to the most economically priced car, which possesses the quality of usefulness, if it last.
Even before the town board learned that the mayor of Boston was down on high priced municipal cars and went around in the cheapest make on the market and advised his subordinates to do likewise, the San Leandro trustees were inclined to favor a cheap car. Now, it is said, San Leandro will take an example from Boston in the matter of low-priced autos.

AUSTRALIAN LADS ARE TENDERED RECEPTION
RICHMOND, March 25.—A fine time was given the boys of the Young Australia League last night at the reception tendered them by the members of Gladstone Lodge, Sons of St. George in Woodmen Hall. A record breaking crowd was in attendance to enjoy the concert of the boys' band and the program which was rendered by speakers from various organizations.
The evening's program closed with the singing of the Australian national anthem by the Australian boys. The rest of the evening was devoted to dancing.

WILSON ORDERS WHITE REINSTATED
Letter Carrier Has Rules of U. S. Postoffice Finally Set Aside.

That the civil service rules of the United States Postoffice Department were set aside in order that a mail carrier might be reinstated in the Oakland department, is the statement made by Postmaster Paul J. Shafer today.
Edward D. White is the letter carrier in whose favor the rules of a great nation have been set aside that he may be reinstated in a $1200 a year position. He was discharged a little less than two years ago following the filing of charges that he drank, gambled and borrowed much money at usurious rates, all of which are violations of the postal regulations.
"This was White's second offense," Schafer said this morning. "The first time, his salary had been cut down from $1200 to $1000 a year as a punishment and warning. Well, after White had been out of the department a year I tried to get him reinstated. He is a good workman, and the civil service rules permit the re-hiring of a man discharged for cause on the recommendation of the postmaster."
All my efforts were unavailing, however, and I thought the matter at an end. Imagine my surprise, then, upon learning today that President Wilson had yesterday signed an executive order authorizing White's reinstatement. That man White must have had a wonderful pull. I wish I had as much. His pull and the influences working in his favor certainly caused government rules to be set aside, as the rule is that if an employee is once discharged and later refused reinstatement his case cannot be taken up again."
White could not be found today to give his version of the affair.

TEUTON STATEMENT DENIED BY FRENCH
War Ministry Says Belgian Neutrality Was Always Respected by Republic.

By Associated Press. PARIS, March 25, 12.40 a. m.—The French ministry of war issued last night a statement designed to refute assertions made in American newspapers by the German military author, General Friederich von Bernhardi, to the effect that the French plan of concentration showed that the French and British governments had made careful preparations to violate the neutrality of Belgium.
The war ministry's statement explains in detail that when war was declared the French army was concentrated along the German frontier and that the Teutonic invasion of Belgium compelled the general staff to change completely its disposition which had been arranged. But for this delay, it says, the Germans never would have been able to cross the Meuse.
The question of the British army taking the field was not considered, the war ministry asserts, until after the violation of Belgium on August 5. The concentration was effected behind Maubeuge from August 14 to 24. Various orders are quoted to show that the French army was kept six miles from the frontier and ordered to leave to the Germans the responsibility for opening hostilities. An order issued by the ministry of war on August 4 is quoted as reading:
"The army will attempt by false news to induce us to violate Belgian neutrality. It is strictly forbidden until further orders for patrols or even single scouts to cross the line or for aviators to fly over Belgian territory."
Not until August 4, the statement asserts, at the formal request of the Belgian government made the preceding day, did the French troops enter Belgium.

PLAN BIG PARADE FOR ARMY AND NAVY DAY

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, March 25.—Every enlisted man in the military and naval service of the United States, stationed at and around San Francisco Bay, in addition to the state army and navy militia, will take part in the parade which is to be a part of the dedicatory program of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition March 27. The day has been officially designated by the officials of the Exposition as "Army and Navy Day."
General Arthur Murray, U. S. A., and Admiral Thomas R. Howard, U. S. N., who are on the official Exposition commission of the Enlisted Men's Club, are actively interested in the matter and promise that thousands will take part in the parade.
Associated with General Murray and Admiral Howard on the committee are Arthur Arlett of the state commission, A. W. Foster of the board of directors of the Exposition, Rear Admiral Charles F. Ford, U. S. N., and T. Myers, U. S. M. C., Lieutenant Commander C. H. Woodward, U. S. N., and Captain Edward Carpenter, C. A. C.

CHURCH CHOIR TO SING SPECIAL MUSIC SUNDAY

The choir of the First Congregational Church, Twelfth and Clay streets, under the direction of Eugene Blachard, will present as a special Palm Sunday offering Wilder's Mass in F-sharp next Sunday evening, March 28.
Miss Virginia de Frenery, the organist, had the distinction of studying with the great master and also hearing the work produced under the direction of Wilder himself at the church of St. Sulpice, Paris, for which the mass was written. It is written for baritone, and is an imposing and impressive work. The baritone chorus consists of some of the best known singers in the bay section, and the other chorus is the church's own efficient one of sixty voices, the soloists of which are: Mrs. A. B. Winchester, soprano; Mrs. Lena C. Nicholson, contralto; Hugh J. Williams, tenor; Charles E. Lloyd, bass.

The complete program for Sunday evening is as follows:
Organ prelude, Allegro Symphonic VI.
Vider
Anthem—Out of the Deep.....Davies
Quintet and Solo.....Davies
Response—Hear Our Prayer.....Whelpton
Chorus unaccompanied
Offertory—The Cross.....Ware
Cantata Solo.
Mass in F-sharp.....Wilder
Baritone and mixed choruses.
Organ Postlude—Pontifical March, Wilder

Simple Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of Axminster Rugs, 9 feet wide by 12 feet long, (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone. After one or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.

LITTLE LANDERS LECTURE TODAY
To hear the Story of
"A Little Land and Liberty"
Illustrated with 100 views of the Hawaiian Islands
FREE LECTURE
Interest, attend
Founder, William E. Smythe.
TOMORROW, FRIDAY, 10 A. M.
Friendship Hall, Odd Fellows' Bldg., 11th and Franklin, Oakland.
Daily visits to Colored and Little Landers. Hear the lecture, then see the place. For illustrated literature, write C. M. Wooster, President, 203 Phelan Bldg., or Phone Kearny 5345

The Toggery's Great Bargain Friday Specials
Exceptional values tomorrow in Spring Coats and Dresses. Read the details below, and be among the early shoppers for a first choice.
Choice of three smart models
New Dresses $5.95
Superior quality men's-wear serges in navy, black, Belgian blue, Russian green. Newest Bolero and other high-waisted models—fancy collars, and silk sashes.
New Coats $6.95
The very smart "military" model pictured in new Scotch mixtures and tweeds; new blue coats in balmacaan effect—worth much more than Friday price, $6.95.
Jersey-top Silk Petticoats $1.95 and $2.95
568-572 14th Street Toggery Next to Taft and Pennoyer

CANDIDATES FOR SCHOOL DIRECTORSHIP SPEAK
A special meeting of the School Women's club was held Saturday, February 20, 1915, in the banquet room of the new building of the Y. W. C. A. The room had been very prettily decorated for the occasion. The lunch was held under the auspices of the civics committee. Mrs. Elena E. Rice, chairman of the committee, acted as toastmistress. Seven of the candidates were present, and each in turn spoke in behalf of their candidacy. All answered affirmatively the question: "Do you believe in women being principals of grammar schools?"
The teachers pressed themselves as well pleased with the opportunity of meeting the candidates personally, and of hearing them express their opinions on various questions of interest to the teachers. The club is to be commended for its effort to serve the interests of the teachers in this practical way.
The following resolution was passed: "Resolved, That the School Women's club of Oakland believes that the present Section 187 of the Political Code is essential to the protection of the children and teachers of the State, and that we therefore endorse the Kemp amendment for a uniform salary rate against the other amendments to Section 187."

USE OF WATER CARRIES RIGHT, JUDGE DECIDES
MARTINEZ, March 25.—The statute of limitations has operated to give the buyers of land tracts in the Moraga valley near here perpetual rights to water which they have been pumping and piping from adjacent lands not their own, according to a decision rendered yesterday by Judge R. H. Latimer in the case of James Garlman against H. W. Carpenter et al. The judge found for the plaintiff.
Fifty-seven owners of small tracts that had been purchased from the Moraga Land Company in 1894 benefit under the decision. After acquiring their land they were unable to obtain water on their tracts, and in 1902 the Moraga Land Company gave them permission to sink wells upon other portions of its property. Later Carpenter came into possession of the unsold portion of the Moraga Land Company's property by foreclosure proceedings and endeavored to put a stop to their practice of piping their water from the land without paying for it. Judge Latimer held today that the land owners had been given free use of the water for more than five years, and that their rights to it were therefore established. The case has been dragging along for five years.

COAST GUARD CUTTERS TO PROTECT NEUTRALITY
By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 25.—Conferences between customs officials and the coast guard service have determined that at present no more coast guard cutters shall be withdrawn from cruising for guarding neutrality at New York or other ports.

—Only 27 people in all Oakland may share in this good fortune.

Axminster Rugs, $12.95 while they last —Beginning sharp at 8:30 tomorrow (Friday) morning we shall offer just twenty-seven full room size Axminster Rugs, 9 feet wide by 12 feet long, at $12.95.

—This is positively the lowest price ever named in Oakland for a rug of this character. The colorings are good and there are half a dozen Oriental and Floral patterns.

—Never mind our reason for making this unusual offer—come tomorrow and if you want to be SURE of getting one of these rugs, COME EARLY.

Brewner's OAKLAND Cor 13th and Franklin Sts.
"For Sixty Years California's Leading House Furnishers"

Friday Savings At The Owl Drug Stores
Franklin said: "The foundation of wealth and independence lies in economy." The Owl's Friday Specials assist you in laying this foundation.
Look at the prices quoted below on our seasonable drug store items and note the real savings opportunity.

25c Ess. Jamaica Ginger	17c	Turkish Face Cloths, 10c size	5c
A bottle of this remedy should be in every medicine cabinet.		A durable, well made wash cloth.
Compound Licorice Powder, 8 ozs.	15c	Owl Foot Comfort	14c
The old reliable laxative.		Relieves tired, aching, swollen feet.
Rochelle Salts	6 os. 15c	Canthrox	29c
Skat Hand Soap, 10c size	5c	A shampoo that leaves the hair soft and fluffy.
The hand cleaning soap for mechanics. Cuts dirt and grease.		Squibb's Talcum	12c
Castor Oil	8 ozs. 15c	Mum	15c
Cold pressed. Made from the best quality castor bean.		Eliminates the odor of perspiration.
Bay Rum	8 os. 17c	Barkeeper's Friend	17c
Full strength, pungent and refreshing.		A non-injurious polish for metals.
A. B. S. & C. Pills, 100 in bottle	17c	Colorite	17c
Beef, Iron and Wine, pint	47c	Will make your last year's hat look new and attractive.
A superior Spring Tonic. Aids the appetite—gives health and strength, and builds you up.		Dioxogen	33c
35c Durham Demonstrator Razor	17c	The best antiseptic.
A safety razor that makes shaving a pleasure.		25c Jergen's Benzoin and Almond Lotion	17c
Pray's Rosaline	17c	A protection against the ravages of wind and sun.
A well-known nail preparation. Used to tint the nails and lips.		Mennen's Shaving Cream	17c

The Owl Drug Co.
FOUR STORES IN OAKLAND.
16TH AND WASHINGTON. 11TH AND WASHINGTON. 15TH AND BROADWAY. 16TH AND SAN PABLO.
Free Delivery—Telephone Oakland 500.

style silk Jersey top made with deep pleated and full cotton mullaline flouncings. Remarkably good and a Number One bargain. $1.19

THE LACE HOUSE

Made of good heavy quality serge with Persian or lighter brass collar and belts. Just 200 of them in the collection. Sizes 8 to 6 $1.98

Oakland Tribune
FOUNDED BY WM. E. DARGIE IN 1875.
Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association.
Member Associated Press Service for Greater Oakland.
ALFRED HOLMAN, Publisher and General Manager.
TRIBUTE every evening except Sunday morning, 5c; Sunday Edition, 1c. Back numbers, 5c per copy and upward.
Subscription Rates by Mail, Postpaid:
United States, Mexico and Canada:
One year, $1.00; Six months, $0.60; Three months, $0.35.
SUNDAY EDITION BY MAIL:
One year, $1.00; Six months, $0.60; Three months, $0.35.
Entered at Oakland Postoffice as second class matter.
PUBLICATION OFFICE—TRIBUTE building, corner of Eighth and Franklin streets; phone Oakland 33.
MANAGER FOREIGN ADVERTISING—Williams, Lawrence & Co., 200 Broadway, New York.
A list of THE TRIBUNE can be secured at the office of Messrs. E. and J. Hardy & Co., 30-31-32 Fleet street, or Dawn Steamship Agency, 17 Green street, or at the Postoffice of Oakland, Cal., under act of Congress March 3, 1879.
TO SUBSCRIBERS:
Subscribers failing to receive their paper within a reasonable hour after publication will please report the same to THE TRIBUNE Office by telephone, and a special messenger will be dispatched with a copy of THE TRIBUNE at once.
Morning TRIBUNE (six days a week), 7c per month.
Entered as second-class matter February 21, 1905, at the Postoffice of Oakland, Cal., under act of Congress March 3, 1879.

THE JAPANESE AND CHINA.

There has been a great deal of discussion on the part of American newspapers within the last fortnight of the relations between China and Japan, with much speculation as to the effect of Japan's alleged demands upon the trading rights of other nations in China and the maintenance of our traditional policy of the "open door." It needs first to be said that as yet there is no authorized version of the demands made by Japan upon China. In the second place, writers and speakers seem to lose sight of the fact that a game of diplomacy is being played and that it is quite possible for Japan to suggest a number of things which she desires but which she by no means expects to obtain save in part. It will be found later, we are confident, that Japan's demands are by no means so harsh or unjustified as many of the newspaper writers and headlines would have us believe. It should be borne in mind also that a very determined effort is apparently being made by Germany to create bad feeling between Japan and this country and between Japan and her European allies. This, of course, is legitimate enough upon the part of Germany insofar as it is confined to the belligerents with which she is at war.

Our national concern in respect to the relations between China and Japan is that nothing should be done tending to deprive us of trade opportunities in the Chinese empire. We want to enter Chinese markets, not with special advantages but under conditions as favorable as those enjoyed by any of our European commercial rivals. We were in a fair way to gain some special advantages in China when the present administration came into power. It will be remembered that one of its first acts was to emphasize the fact that it disapproved of the participation by certain New York bankers in various loans which the Chinese government was trying to negotiate in this country. It was stipulated in these contracts that the supplies for railways and public improvements built with moneys obtained in this country should be purchased in the United States. The contracts providing for these loans were of a very advantageous nature and would have laid the foundation for an extensive and continuing trade in China; a trade that would have absorbed huge quantities of the output of our factories and mills. President Wilson and Secretary Bryan smashed this desirable trade arrangement and destroyed at a single blow commercial prestige which he had developed in China. Consequently we can claim no special rights or privileges in the consideration of Chinese affairs, further than that of insistence upon the "open door" policy.

Japan is a strong and ambitious country. It, with its dependency, Korea, is China's nearest effective neighbor. The Japanese have driven the Germans from their stronghold on Chinese territory, and have rendered considerable service to the allies in the Pacific. They have long dreamed of the commercial conquest of China and foresee for themselves a future in which Japan shall become a great industrial nation, the chief purchasers for whose products shall be the Chinese people. It seems to be quite well understood in diplomatic circles, both in Washington and in Europe, that Japan is likely to exercise a far greater degree of ascendancy over China than has ever been attempted by any other power. Japan is quite of the opinion that her rights are as important in China as ours are in the Caribbean sea. She regards China as within her sphere of commercial and political activity just as we consider Central America, Mexico and some of the smaller Latin-American republics marked by destiny to be largely and perhaps fatefully influenced by us. As long as the United States holds to the Monroe doctrine and the policies that are the inevitable outcome of it, we cannot expect of Japan anything more than the continued compliance with her promise to respect the integrity of China and the policy of the "open door." It is believed in Washington and London that it is Japan's intention to maintain in the East the doctrine of the "Orient for Orientals." At the present moment no government is prepared to take exception to Japan's wishes and activities. It is not unlikely, however, that after the European war is ended and life has resumed its normal course on the continent and in England that this country may find it advantageous to confer with England and Russia in regard to what Japan is doing and proposes to do in China. On the whole, it does not seem likely that the powerful and enterprising nations of Europe will consent to the permanent acquisition and enjoyment by Japan of any very considerable special trade advantages and opportunities in China.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO.

More than ten days ago Mr. John B. McManus, a highly reputable American citizen, was shot and killed by some of the followers of Zapata in the City of Mexico, while defending his house over which he had hoisted the American flag, as he had a right to do. He was a well known man of high character and had been of very considerable assistance to Governor Tison, when he cleaned up Vera Cruz after our forces occupied that port. There is nothing particularly unique or unusual in the killing of Mr. McManus. He was an American citizen, self-respecting, law-abiding, minding his own business, and he was ruthlessly shot. Scores of other equally inoffensive Americans have been ruthlessly shot and the reports and evidence have been systematically and determinedly concealed in the archives of the departments of state, war and navy, at Washington. There is a vast amount of evidence on file at Washington which proves conclusively the number and character of murders and outrages committed upon American citizens in Mexico during the last two years. The case of McManus attracts attention because he was a man of more prominence and wider acquaintance than many of his companions and because he was killed under somewhat dramatic circumstances. A demand has been made for an apology and a money indemnity and it is announced in dispatches today that the eminent Mr. Zapata and his executioner, General Palefox, have promised to apologize and to punish the murderers, if they can be found. This is very considerate on the part of Zapata, who is one of the bloodthirstiest villains of modern history, but it shows to what a state this government has come when by reason of its policy the only responsible person with whom it can deal in the City of Mexico is a crime stained scoundrel of the Zapata type. It will be interesting to know the amount of the money indemnity which Mr. Bryan proposes to get from Zapata. As a matter of fact, he will have to take, not what he ought to demand but what Zapata is willing to pay, inasmuch as we have no way to enforce our claims. Matters have come to such a pass in Mexico that every political creature or small bandit leader thinks that about the safest thing he can do is to rob an American.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT ON STATE LAWS.

Vice-President Marshall in his Charter Day address at the University of California yesterday made one wise observation. Said he:

Your young men must decide finally whether you are to be statutory men or human beings. The statutory man is one who believes that every fault in society or the home must be corrected by general enactment of the State of California. I am not against all the good laws of California, but I believe that your legislation will all have been idle unless your men and women stand erect in its support.

The Vice-President has here pointed out an obvious fault and danger of the times. It ought to be evident to every thoughtful person, and particularly to those who have had the time and patience to read history, that the multiplication of laws in California and in many other states during the last ten years has become both tragic and ridiculous. It is authoritatively stated that within the last five years the aggregate number of federal and state legislative enactments exceeds 64,000. This fact tends toward tragedy in a sense and it gives rise to great and growing disregard and disrespect for all law. It is a condition which makes for futility, because of the freakish character of many of the legislative enactments and the lack of any necessity of the passage of the vast majority of the legislation which has been flooding the country for the last decade. The Vice-President did a very good service to his country and to this state when he emphasized the evil of unnecessary legislation and the vain attempt that has been made to regulate all the relations and activities of life through the medium of statute law.

EUROPEAN LOANS AND RUMORS OF PEACE.

New York dispatches contain the cheering information that England and France are arranging for very large credit loans in this country and that an official announcement may be expected within a week or two. It is stated that England will be given a credit of $100,000,000 very shortly, which will ultimately, if the war continues, be increased to $250,000,000. It is also expected that France will ask for fifty or sixty million dollars more. Mr. J. P. Morgan is on his way to Europe, it is surmised, for the purpose of arranging the details respecting these enormous sums of money which are to be placed to the credit of the two leading allies by this country. The news is of a highly encouraging character to the financial and business world for the reason that if the loans are obtained by the allies and the credit accounts opened here, all the money obtained will be expended in the United States for the products of our farms and factories. In other words, two or three hundred million dollars worth of business on a cash basis will immediately be provided for. The placing of large orders, amounting to two or three hundred million dollars, will insure the continuance of industrial activity in many lines for the rest of this year and will of course make demand for farm products at large prices.

Another solidly hopeful feature of the news from the East in connection with these loans is the statement that a very optimistic feeling prevails in Eastern financial circles in respect to the duration of the war. The belief is confidently expressed by bankers who do an important international business and who have large international connections that the European war will come to an end with apparent suddenness sometime within the next four months. In the past, international financiers have often become possessed of highly significant and authentic inside information respecting both the making of war and the making of peace. And if what has happened in the past be any indication as to what may be expected in the future, we may be warranted in giving somewhat serious consideration to these rumors, respecting the probably early conclusion of hostilities. Every great war, however, makes new conditions and furnishes the world with a series of surprises. In view of these well established facts, we are not inclined to accept without reserve anybody's prediction respecting the end of the war.

Vermont's legislature having adopted an eugenic law which provides a $500 fine for persons violating its provisions, the adjoining states of New Hampshire, New York and Connecticut will be popular as Gretna Greens for Green Mountain bridal parties.

Advices from Switzerland state that copper has been smuggled across the German border in coffins and that the authorities, suspicious because of the extraordinary number of funerals, investigated and made several captures. One coffin is said to have been full of copper, which statement leads to the belief that Swiss cheese must develop extraordinarily strong pall bearers in that section of country.

Speaking of freak legislation, California and Texas seem to be running a neck and neck race. California has a bill providing for a compensation of two dollars a day for all persons arrested but not convicted, while Texas has amended the law prohibiting playing cards on railway trains by providing that one who indulges in a game in his own home two nights in succession must pay a fine of $50. In other words a chap and his wife may play cards Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, but if they break over and indulge Mondays and Tuesdays it is the police court for both. However, this bill is no less absurd than the measure providing compensation for persons arrested but not convicted. Of all the schemes designed to lower the treasury surplus this is entitled to the banner. If enacted into law the delays now regarded as a nuisance would love their terror. Jobless men could be provided for by the simple expedient of having them arrested on some charge, valid or otherwise, and the lawyers would do the rest. Demurrers, motions to strike out, to quash the information, to postpone, for change of venue would prove highly profitable. We do not know who introduced the measure, but that makes little difference. His head needs repairs.

Noting the latest development in the Diggs-Caminetti cases, the Redding Searchlight remarks: "The Mann law has been a failure as regards the apprehension and conviction of genuine white slavers. It is said that there has not been a single conviction in a case where the commercial element appeared."

THE FORUM

LETTERS FROM TRIBUNE READERS ON TIMELY TOPICS.

W. B. LAMAR STILL A DEMOCRAT.
San Francisco, Cal., March 16.
Editor Washington Post. As press special to your paper from here quotes me as saying I have become a Republican and advocate for the President Fairbanks for the Presidency I am disturbed in my mind. What I said was that I was a Southern Democrat and therefore of the straightest Democratic faith, but if I could be at all tempted to vote for a Republican it would be for "so capable and honest a public man as the distinguished guest, Mr. Fairbanks."

The remarks were made at a luncheon given in honor of Mr. Fairbanks by his Indiana friends, and were perfectly understood by all present. I am very much devoted to a Democratic administration. WILLIAM B. LAMAR.
Mr. Lamar is one of the United States government commissioners to the Panama-Pacific Exposition and is spending the year in California.
Some of the newspaper correspondents seem to have been dealing unkindly with Brother Lamar. It was a cruel joke to telegraph Washington that this fine old Florida born southerner had become a Republican. Brother Lamar's apology and protestations are almost painful in their earnestness.

THE BOND ISSUE.

A Public Spirited Viewpoint.
San Leandro, Cal., March 23, 1915.
EDITOR OF THE TRIBUNE: As one of the heaviest taxpayers in San Leandro, and as one who was keenly interested in the passing of the $1,000,000 bond issue at last Friday's election, permit me to suggest this: From numerous conversations had with voters just before and just following the election, I found there had been a decided change in favor of the bonds, due no doubt to the excellent campaign. Had the election been a month later, no doubt the bonds would have carried. I have found since that many people who failed to vote regret the defeat of the bonds and keenly feel the bad position the county has been placed in. It seems to me that if sufficient funds could be raised by private subscription to cover all the expense of placing the matter before the voters again, in say two months time, that the bonds will pass. There could be no criticism of the expense to the taxpayers for such an election, and for this reason the supervisors would not oppose it. The vote given the bonds shows the majority of the people were plainly in favor of redeeming the pledge. The publicity given the vote on the bonds and the criticisms we are being subjected to would no doubt result in a heavy vote for the bonds at such an election.
As for the expense of such an election, you no doubt would find election officers more than willing to donate their services on election day.
I am simply making this suggestion for your consideration.

A. E. PELTON.
Oakland, March 23.
EDITOR TRIBUNE: Can any of your readers tell me the author and where I can find the complete poem beginning: Bring me men to match my mountains, Men to match my boundless plains, Men with empires in their purpose And new eras in their brains.

A. D. E.
Chats With Our State Contemporaries
Winter's Backbone is Broken.
"The mail carrier came through the Carmel Valley today for the first time this month," says the Jamesburg reporter of the Salinas Index.

Gopher Discourages Snyder.
There is a note of discouragement, not to say regret, in the following query by Jo. Y. Snyder, late Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor, editor of the Grass Valley Union.
"Did you ever have a gopher start in to ruin your garden or lawn and then get too discouraged to finish the job?"

No, Claire, Letters Fell Not.
Announcing that Pzem's fall has fallen, L. Claire Davis, of the Stockton Mail, says: "Here's hoping none of the letters were jarred loose in the fall. Most of us have only just learned how to spell it without looking up." L. Claire can rest her active mind in peace. The very latest is that while the walls of the city suffered indentation and many of the buildings were badly battered by shot and shell, the title of the town is still intact.

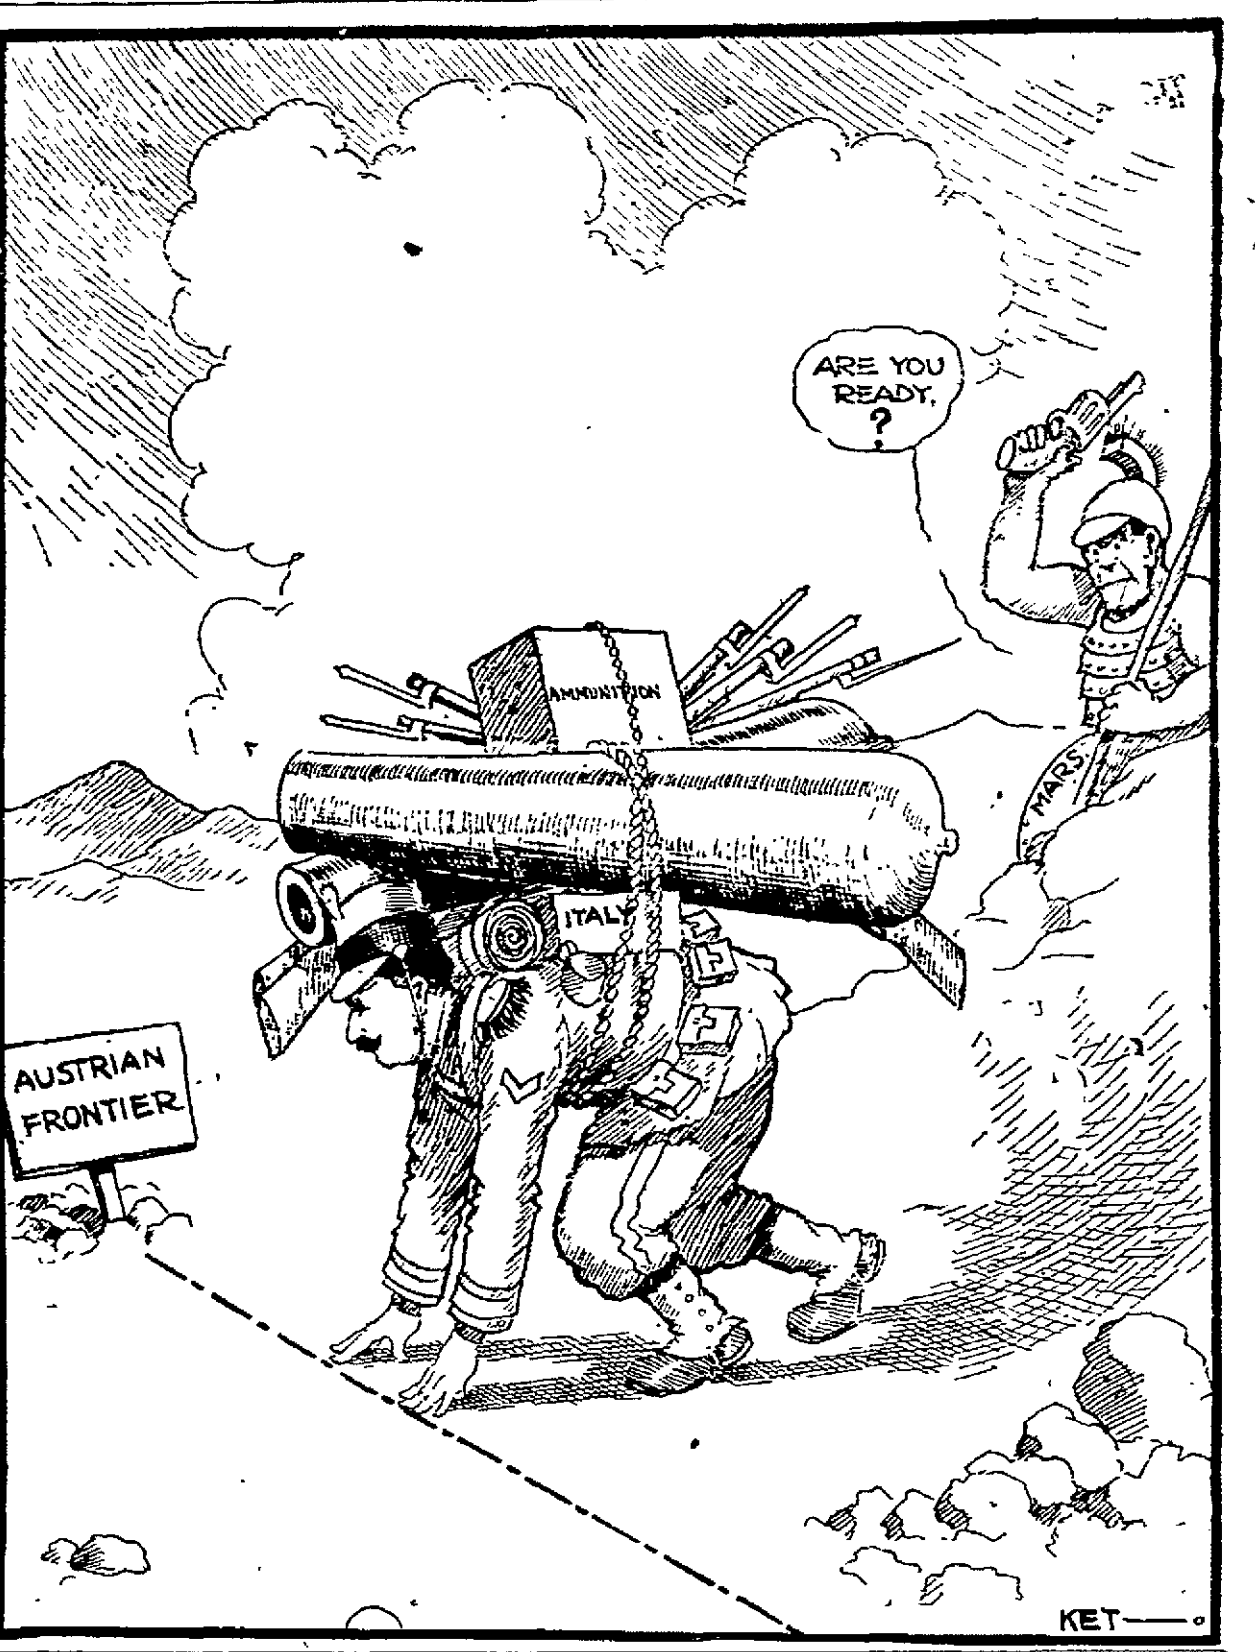

Pirates Purchase a Motor.
The State Press has known for some time that Colonel Jeems Piratsky of the Watsonville Pajaronian has recently bought a perfecting press and a lot of other disguises that will enable him to get out his paper in time to serve all his numerous subscribers before bedtime, but the colonel has carefully concealed the fact that he has spent a bundle of money for an automobile. However, the secret is out. Jeems betrays himself in the following, which could not have been written save by a person with experience:
"Hesitation Motoring," says a headline in a Santa Ana newspaper, "is getting popular." Around Watsonville, when the machines hesitate on the road many miles from nowhere, there are times when broken French is popular.

How About That Carrier Pigeon?
Woodland's Democrat, which ever since Editor Leake Sr. was selected for the lucrative position of Appraiser of the Port of San Francisco, has studiously maintained that the country is as prosperous as it ought to be, in dolours in the following at the hands of Editor Leake Jr.
"The Galveston News says that while Admiral Noah had his troubles, he did not have to sit up all night and watch for sub-marines. No, but on the other hand he had nobody to send an S. O. S. in case the ark sprung a leak."

Spring Spring Here for Certain.
That spring is here no one can doubt following the reading in the Napa Register that Frank Roberts caught a 25-pound bass and H. J. Lewis a 19-pounder in the river last Sunday.

Dark Mystery in Colton.
Colton correspondence, San Bernardino Sun:
"A negro who drifted into town came to the attention of the police, who are trying to unravel the mystery of how a large roll of bills, valuable diamond ring, gold watch and flashlight came into the possession of the colored man.

ON THE MARK

War Raging on Eel River.
"Italian regiments of volunteers," says the Eureka Californian, "entrenched on the banks of Eel river near Shively, have maintained since a continuous bombardment, otherwise called hunting, during the last few weeks that neutrals of the region are voicing strenuous complaints. They fear that the services of a Red Cross corps may become necessary if these heroes are not suppressed."

MacAbee's Many Motor Trips.
From the Mission San Juan reporter of the Hollister Free Lance:
"George MacAbee and family were among the autists from here to Watsonville recently."
"George MacAbee motored through Hollister and vicinity, Fairview and Soap Lake, returning via Gilroy last Monday."
"Mrs. George MacAbee has become an auto enthusiast and was receiving instructions from an expert demonstrator from San Jose last week in running her new Overland."

Morality Protest From Chico.
"From the illustrations in the San Francisco Sunday newspapers," remarks Florence J. O'Brien, of the Chico Enterprise, "it is plain that some of the sights at the polo match have not been passed by the National Board of Censorship."

VARIETIES.
The following poem was read at the funeral services of the late Mrs. John D. Rockefeller and was deeply impressive. "Mr. Rockefeller," says one who was present, "was deeply moved by the sentiment—the poem and said so afterwards to the clergyman."
The Christian's Good Night.
Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest, Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast.
We loved thee well, but Jesus loves thee best! Good night! Good night!

Calm is thy slumber as an infant's sleep, But thou shalt wake no more to toil and weep! Thine is a perfect rest, secure and deep! Good night! Good night!

Until the shadows from this earth are past, Until He gathers in His Slaves at last, Until the twilight gloom be overpast— Good night! Good night!

Until made beautiful by love divine, Thou in the likeness of thy Lord shalt shine. And He shall bring that golden crown of thine Good night! Good night!

Only good night, beloved, not farewell, A little while and all his saints shall dwell In hallowed union indivisible! Good night! Good night!

Belgium as part of the reward to that kingdom for her steadfastness and valor in war.

"Belgium rendered tremendous service by holding the Germans," says M. Finot. "If Constantinople were given to her it would solve the problem of what to do with the Turkish capital after the war. The Dardanelles could then be declared open forever under the protection of the civilized countries of the world."

Mothers Whip Teacher.
A Kansas City, (Kan.) dispatch says: After two angry mothers had taken vengeance on P. H. Marols, teacher at the St. Mile School, just west of this city, Marols decided to seek a more peaceful district.
First Marols got into trouble when a traveling photographer came along and took a picture of the pupils. Among the 150 children were fourteen negroes. Marols separated the two races. For this the mother of one of the negro children lambasted him with a board. Next Marols found it necessary to inflict physical punishment on Barbara Stusse, 15 years old. Next day Mother Stusse blew in with a horsewhip and "whaled" the teacher until he escaped.

Farmer's Theaters.
Percy Mackaye, who is just now engaged in the establishment of rural theaters, says that one of the best ways of lessening the high percentage of insanity in sparsely settled States would be the starting of community theaters in which farmers would be actors as well as stage directors and playwrights.

Poor Mrs. Atherton.
Gertrude Atherton suffers much annoyance, particularly in England, where her "Perch of the Devil" has reached a third edition from the frequent confusion of her identity with that of an English Mrs. Atherton, author of two novels, who has been connected with several sensational affairs that have found their way into the newspapers.

SHAFRAN'S
Exclusive Styles—Popular Prices
CLAY STREET COR. FIFTEENTH
Surpassing Values in New Spring Suits
By all odds the most distinctive collection of clever suits to be found in the city. In materials, colorings and styling you can find none to surpass them. Over 200 models at $20, $22.50 and $25
Fetching Dresses
A superb showing of new dresses. Exclusive styles in taffetas, crepe de chine, poplins and serges. The loveliest models you have ever seen at these prices.
$13.75, $15, $17.50 and to $45
SHAFRAN'S
Clay and 15th Sts.

ART CRITICISM PEEVES PATROLMAN

Arrests Two Men Who Dared
Assert His Lines on Pavement
Were Crooked

Patrolman John McCarthy is the artist of the Oakland police department. He has the artistic temperament developed to a high degree, and when the department desires that something shall be done in a particularly artistic manner, McCarthy receives the detail.

McCarthy was given the job of drawing nice straight lines from curb to curb at the Broadway and Twelfth-street crossings, controlled by traffic officers. The lines indicate where automobiles and street cars are expected to stop to permit pedestrians to pass.

McCarthy was out drawing the lines with a little paint brush, followed by two stalwart members of the "chain-gang" armed with large paint brushes to do the heavy work. The hour was 2:21 a. m., and "Mac" had just finished a beautiful piece of work at Twelfth and Broadway, when two men approached warily and gazed at his artistic design.

"I know the curve is the line of beauty," said one to the other. "But why should he draw curves on the pavement?"

McCarthy looked up angrily. "That's hardly a curve," he responded. "That's what I would call a wandering wiggler."

"The line's straight," shouted the artist, brandishing a broom, with which he had swept the street before applying the color.

"Can you see it wavers?" queried the two strangers.

It was too much for McCarthy. He poked one of the men with the broom to keep him from sneering at the paint and placed both under arrest on charges of drunkenness. They were released on bail, and will ask for a trial by jury. It is anticipated that the testimony will deal with whether the lines were straight or not. McCarthy can prove that they fulfilled all the Euclidean requirements as to a

"straight," he will have established the fact that he was justified in making the arrests, and that his action was not merely an expression of artistic temperament when under criticism.

McCarthy was seen working with three T-squares and a chalkline today on the Twelfth and Broadway lines.

CONSTANTINO TO

SING IN CONCERT

Noted Tenor and Society Girl

Will Be Heard Tomorrow.

Society and music lovers will meet tomorrow night at the common bond of interest. Constantino, one of the world's greatest operatic tenors, and

Patricia O'Connor (Mrs. Tyler Tubbs

Henshaw), talented society girl, will sing at the Macdonough in a notable concert, in which will also be heard Miss Marie

Rapino, pupil of the famed tenor, who for the first time will appear in public at the Oakland affair.

The famous tenor is making his Pacific Coast debut at the Macdonough tomorrow night. Long known as an opera star, and recently appearing in Oakland in "Rigoletto," the famous singer plans an extensive tour in concert recitals at different notable singers whom he plans to appear with.

The program will be directed by Car-

Pulcenzo Guerrieri, operatic orchestra leader, who will accompany the singers.

Arise from opera and other numbers will be rendered by the great tenor, who has also promised to sing several songs to be chosen by his audience. Miss

O'Connor will appear in a group of

French German English songs, and Miss Rapino will sing selections from opera.

Miss O'Connor, who is a University of California graduate, has studied under notable masters in the past, where she made several brilliant successes before returning to California. She recently made a brilliant reputation as a singer of children's songs, and has appeared in a number of operatic productions.

Constantino first made his great success in America while on an operatic tour with Alice Nielsen, and later was heard in the big opera companies of the East. He has also made several European tours recently.

ROBS GOOD SAMARITAN

OF COIN AND CLOTHES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—When

Herman Backels, who lives at the Harbor

House, 133 Drumm street, awoke this morning, he found himself marooned in his apartment. Every vestige of his clothing, save his vest, had been stolen by a man with whom he shared his room. For a moment he was in a quandary. Then he remembered that the Harbor police station was directly opposite.

The station keeper, Patrolman Thomas

Gibbons, was looting in his chair when he heard an unearthly yell in the distance. Throwing up the window and looking out he saw Backels gestulating from the way.

"A burglar has taken all my things,

my money and my stocks, and I have no clothes to get out," yelled Backels.

A pair of overalls was found for him and he was finally brought over to the station. He reported that he had acted as the good samaritan and entertained a stranger. While he slept the man had taken his coat, trousers, shirt, hat,

$2 in coin, 2000 shares of mining stock and his citizenship papers.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about the exuberance of spirit that nature intended for man, and should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus,

Ohio—Advt.

TRADING OF CARS IS A PROBLEM FOR DEALERS

In Nearly Every New Car Sale Used
Car Figures; Motor Car Notes

(By J. A. HOULIHAN.)

The average man today who comes into the market for a new car has an old one to dispose of. In fact, some dealers last year sold more used cars than new ones, being compelled in numerous cases to dispose of more than one used car to negotiate a new car sale.

The dealer who cannot sell a new car by any other means always tries to attract the buyer by offering a fictitious price for his used car. Any car of standard make has its second-hand price, variable by a hundred dollars or so according to condition or according to locality, but the actual difference between what one dealer in a given center can get for a used car and what another in the same center can get for the same car is scarcely appreciable. Therefore the dealer who takes it in at a fancy price is bound to lose money on it and thus give up some of his profit on the sale of the new car.

But few cars are very profits and many in business. If you cut prices you've got to get your loss back somehow or shut up shop. Those, however, that allow it and keep on going have to provide for it, and do so systematically by giving the buyer less for his money. The buyer flatters himself on his ability as a trader when he turns in a car worth $1000 for $1200, while the dealer sells him a new car priced at $2000 and worth about $1500. The man who pays $2000 for this same car with no used car to trade in is a still heavier loser.

The moral of all this is—when you set out to buy a new car find out what your old car is worth, and steer clear of the dealer who offers you half as much again for it. Depend on it the car he has to sell is not worth what he asks for it, or if it is the manufacturer will soon be out of business, leaving you with a car on your hands that has no backing and can therefore hardly be given away when you get through with it. In business there is no such thing as something for nothing.

STUDEBAKER FACTORY RUSHED.

Facing every possible man that efficiency will permit in the five Studebaker automobile factories at Detroit, the company is forced to work some departments at night to keep up with the demand for cars. Not only is the American demand far larger than at the same time a year ago, but orders from both England and Australia far exceed those on file at this time last year. Reviving business conditions in Canada have caused an influx in orders to the Canadian factory at Walkerville, Ont., and 300 additional men have been added to the force there.

The present situation, demanding maximum production, is gratifying in the extreme," said E. J. DeLeon, vice-president in charge of sales of the Studebaker corporation, in commenting on the necessity for night work. "We are crowding our department to get 100 per cent production and 100 per cent efficiency. Just now we are turning out one car a day and we are not able to catch up with our orders. "In a sense, we were prepared for the heavy demand, which, originating in the west, is now sweeping the country. We already had a body adapted to the economical carrying of passengers.

BURGLARS FORCE WAY INTO OAKLAND HOMES

Burglars last night forced an entrance to the home of Miss M. E. Hennings, 255 Euclid avenue, by jimmying open a side window and stole jewelry and silverware.

By forcing a rear window, a burglar gained entrance to the home of Mrs. Andrew Kern, in Euclid Park, and stole $43.55, which was contained in a purse. Mrs. G. L. Spaulding found a skeleton key caught in the lock of her front door when she returned to her home, 1005 Jefferson street, last night. She believes a burglar was attempting to gain admittance but was frightened away.

OSCAR STRAUSS UNABLE TO SPEAK IN OAKLAND

Oscar Strauss, New York financier and philanthropist, informed Joseph E. Caine, managing-director of the Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club, Consolidated, today that he would be unable to speak in this city as he had planned to do. Cancellation of the proposed date is due to the fact that Strauss must leave shortly for the East, cutting short his stay in California.

He is now in San Francisco and was to have spoken "some evening next week" at a meeting to be called under the auspices of the Commercial organization.

HELD AS BURGLAR.

Charles Maywood, charged with burglary, was held to answer before Judge Mortimer Smith today, bonds being fixed in the sum of $2000. Maywood is alleged to have broken into the Guernsey Creamery, 477 Twenty-first street, March 14, and to have looted the cash till.

WOMAN SCIENTIST DIES.

By Associated Press. LONDON, March 25.—Lady Margaret Lindsay Higgins, widow of the late Sir William Higgins, the astronomer and well known for her scientific work, died at her home here today.

The Angel

To Los Angeles and San Diego

—Superior to any other train between Oakland and Los Angeles—and the only through train to the San Diego Exposition.

—All steel equipment—through sleeper service—provided with all travel comforts—and no extra charge.

—Leaves Oakland—San Francisco 4 p. m. daily

—Ask Santa Fe ticket offices about the reduced round-trip rates to San Diego.

Santa Fe City Offices:

Oakland, 1218 Broadway, Phone Lakeside 425

San Francisco, 673 Market St., Phone Kearny 315

ELOPERS OFF ON HONEYMOON TRIP

Relatives, Surprised, Do Not Know Destination of Couple.

After their elopement to Redwood City yesterday Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan, the latter of whom was Miss Katherine Johnson of Oakland, niece of Governor Johnson, departed on a honeymoon and relatives have no idea of their whereabouts, according to Mrs. Albert Johnson, sister-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Sullivan had resided with her brother's family at 264 Moraga avenue, Piedmont, until the romantic wedding of yesterday, and her personal effects are still at the house. Mrs. Johnson stated this morning that her sister-in-law would doubtless send for them, but that she has not yet received any word from the honeymooners.

They took no one into their confidence, but motored down to Redwood City yesterday for a quiet ceremony, at which Town Recorder James S. Hannon officiated. Sullivan appeared first alone before County Clerk Nash and asked for a marriage licence. Told that the law required the presence of the prospective bride, he went to the Section Hotel, where she was waiting and after two hours of persuasion returned with Miss Johnson. After the making of the ceremony, without stating their destination.

Sullivan is a San Francisco attorney and secretary of the Shipowners' Association of the Pacific Coast. His bride is a handsome and talented girl, who at one time adopted the stage as a career. After making a success in an Oakland stock company she gave it up. An ambition to become a professional dancer also was abandoned, and for the past year or two Mrs. Sullivan has lived quietly in Piedmont. She is 22 years old and the age of the bridegroom is given in the marriage license as 44.

Albert Johnson said today that he had known nothing of his sister's plans. "They took us completely by surprise," he stated. "My sister and Mr. Sullivan have known each other for a long time. Mr. Sullivan was executor of our mother's estate, and has been a great deal of my sister for the past three years."

Johnson added that Sullivan and his bride would undoubtedly take up their home in San Francisco following the honeymoon.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

DANCING IN THE REDWOODS

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

STRUCK BY JITNEY, HURT, AND DESERTED

SUIT FOR STOCK IS TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

Thomas, 15 years of age, 2209 Holman street, was struck by a jitney at Tenth and San Pablo avenues last night. The driver of the jitney was thrown to the ground and received severe bruises. That all night, the driver of the jitney said to him, according to his story, "I've got a $5000 bond that I'll protect me."

Thomas told the police that the driver then left him, without offering assistance. The police are seeking the driver of the jitney.

Superior Judge N. D. Arnold has taken under advisement the suit brought by Charles Huganod, a former deputy county treasurer, to collect ten shares of stock, or $1000, from William A. Huganod for his alleged activity in exploiting the sale of Huganod's invention. The invention consisted of a bleaching process for laundries. Plaintiff claimed that Huganod had promised him twenty-two shares of stock if he would introduce him to persons who purchased the invention.

Scenery and Service Make
Traveling a Pleasure

GO EAST VIA THE SCENIC
WESTERN PACIFIC
DENVER & RIO GRANDE

Through Daily Sleepers to Chicago and St. Louis
W. B. TOWNSEND, General Agent,
Phone Oakland 132. 1326 Broadway, Oakland, Calif.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See time table in daily papers.—Advertisement.

On Sunday, March 25th, for patrons of the Oakland Branch of Eastern Railway, a spacious outdoor dancing pavilion will be opened at Pinehurst station, Redwood Canyon. A good place to take the family for an outing. See

Heart TRIBUNE'S PAGE for WOMEN Home

Society

MISS ALMA NAISMITH, WHO HAS BEEN A GUEST AT MANY AFFAIRS THIS SEASON.

Miss Alice Palmer and Mrs. Mel To-bringer gave an informal tea at the Oakland this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jack Ewing of Ann Arbor, who is visiting Mrs. E. A. Palmer in San Francisco. Mrs. Ewing, who is a former California girl, is renewing old friendships during her stay, and with Miss Palmer will go to Sacramento to be the guest of yesterday for the month of April. She is the wife of Professor Ewing of Ann Arbor, who will join her in San Francisco later in the season. Invited to meet Mrs. Ewing this afternoon were Mrs. Philip Elias, Mrs. L. Beretta, Mrs. E. A. Palmer, Miss Helen Dunsmuir, Miss Alfreda Wright and Miss Agnes Thompson.

DINNER DANCE AT COUNTRY CLUB. Mrs. Harry Manville Wright's dancing club will meet for the last time this season on Thursday evening, April 1, at the Claremont Country Club. The affair will be a dinner dance which is a departure from the usual informal parties of the club, and a number of guests will be entertained. Many of the members will have parties of six or eight and tables will be set in the roof garden of the club. Those who belong in the club are prominent members of the Claremont and Berkeley sets.

MRS. DOUBLEDAY GREETED. Cordial greetings are being given Mrs. George Doubleday, who arrived yesterday morning from New York to visit her mother, Mrs. James Moffitt, in Piedmont. As Miss Alice Moffitt, she was one of the most popular girls in Oakland society and her visits are a keen pleasure to her friends. The Doubledays have a beautiful home near New York, and frequently entertain California friends there and at their apartment in the metropolis, and many of those who have accepted her hospitality in the East will entertain the visitor. She will be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Moffitt, in San Francisco during a part of her stay.

WEDDING IN ST. HELENA. Mr. and Mrs. John Britton Jr. went to St. Helena yesterday to attend the wedding of the former's brother, Mr. Emmet Britton, and Miss Lydia Dault, which took place at high noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Britton Sr., who live at the St. Francis, also went to St. Helena for the ceremony, at which several of the bride's classmates at Mills College were present. The bride has been a member of the 1915 class at Mills, but left college a few weeks ago to accept a position with the U. S. Customs at San Francisco, where the young couple will establish their home after the honeymoon.

INFORMAL TEA. Mrs. Frederick Gowing will be hostess at an informal tea on Friday afternoon, April 2, entertaining members of a sewing and tea club which meets every fortnight. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Birt.

TO ATTEND CONCERT. Most of Oakland society will be represented at the Macdonough tomorrow evening for the Constantino concert at which Mrs. Tyler Tubb Henshaw (Faulkner) will make her debut with the Spanish tenor. Among those who will be present, many of them with guests, are Mrs. E. A. Palmer, Mrs. E. D. York, Mrs. A. L. White, Mrs. A. E. Wilkinson, Miss Mollie Connors, Miss Emma Farrier, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Birt, and Mrs. Edward Engs and many others.

CONSTANTINO ENTERTAINED. Professor William H. Arnes entertained Constantino, the noted Spanish tenor, on Tuesday in Berkeley, having him as a guest at the Berkeley Day reception later on. A four-piece orchestra, the string was much impressed with the acoustic properties of the Greek Theater and spent an interesting day at the college.

OAKLAND DINNER DANCE. The weekly dinner dance at the Oakland this evening will be attended by many of the dancing set and several large parties for which tables have been reserved. Mr. and Mrs. Carson Angel have arranged one of the Dutch Treat parties which will number 12 or 14.

AT THE POLO GAMES. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters gave their box at the polo games at the fair on Tuesday to Miss Grace and Miss Violet Buckley, who entertained several San Francisco friends. Mrs. Clinton La Montaine entertained a party including Miss Julia Galpin of Berkeley among others.

LUNCHEON AT THE OAKLAND. Miss Catherine Carey gave a luncheon at the Oakland Tuesday afternoon, entertaining members of the O. C. C. club. Among the guests were Miss Wilhelmina O'Connell, Miss Ida Crowley, Miss Ellen Crowley and several others.

NAVY DINNER. Mrs. Harris Cobert Cappell chartered

FAIRBANKS DINES ALONE AT SUPPER DANCE

At the Fairmont supper dance Tuesday evening, former Vice-President Fairbanks sat alone. In solitary silence he ate oysters, while the crowd of dancers, seated by him or ate oysters at other tables. The former vice-president looked forlorn, but it was obviously his own idea to attend the supper dance alone. He came into the hotel late from somewhere, possibly the Pacific Union Club across the street, and in the lobby decided to stop before he retired. Naturally, then, he sought the supper room, where the dancing was in progress. Waiters rushed to serve him, and Mr. Fairbanks, quite unconsciously, caused a polite sensation.

It recalled the ingenious San Francisco youth who wandered into a New York club for lunch. He had dined at Sherry's, which he so discreetly uncommemorial in appearance that it might be taken for a club by strangers. It misled the San Francisco youth into believing that most places with broad plate glass windows overlooking the avenue, and diamond-covered tables lavishly near them, were restaurants. Wherefore, he wandered into one, one day, and ordered luncheon. No one asked for his guest card, and it was not until the luncheon before he disconcertingly discovered that he was in a club.

LOOKS AT MARRIAGE LICENSE; DISAPPEARS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Robert Kaplan, 154 Jesse street, and a young woman who merely signed herself A. M. Koenig, 1147 Colma, San Francisco, requested "Cupid" Munson yesterday to issue them a marriage license. Munson gave them the necessary application blank and they signed their names. Then the young woman excused herself and stepped outside the license office. Kaplan sat down to await her return. He waited an hour and then he went out to see what had become of her. "She's gone," he said to Munson, then he returned. "I'll try and see if I can find her and I'll try and get back before closing time." He didn't.

MISS MORGAN HURT IN FALL FROM SADDLE

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Miss Eleanor Carroll Morgan, debutante daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dudley Morgan, and a direct descendant of Lord Baltimore, was thrown from her horse yesterday and one of her wrists was fractured. While riding with Miss Rebecca Wilmer, also a society girl, her horse stumbled. Although Miss Wilmer's mount became almost unmanageable during the incident, she kept her seat and rode to the Emergency Hospital to remain with her friend until the fracture was reduced. Miss Morgan rode home after leaving the hospital.

DECEASED AUTHOR HAD MOST ROMANTIC CAREER

NEW YORK, March 25.—Morgan Robertson, who was found dead in his room in a hotel at Atlantic City last night, had a romantic career as a sailor, author, jeweler and inventor of a submarine periscope. He was one of the most prolific writers of short sea stories America has produced. Running away from his home in Oswego, N. Y., when 16 years of age, he shipped as a cabin boy and made two voyages around the world, occupying in the next ten years nearly every post on shipboard. Returning to America, he made his home in New York and became a watchmaker and diamond cutter, but after two years, in which he said he was "almost constantly broke," he began to write his sea stories, which have been familiar to all readers of periodicals for twenty years. Although he wrote more than two hundred stories, which have been published in fourteen volumes, he recently asserted in an unsigned autobiography that he had been reduced to straitened circumstances. He was making an attempt to find him at the time of his death.

Developing the idea while writing a story, Mr. Robertson invented in 1906 an improved periscope for submarines, which was purchased by a builder of such craft. His studio in this city was fitted like a ship's cabin. Mr. Robertson was 34 years old. Among the best known of his stories are "Sinful Peck," "Finnegan" and "Futility."

A party of young people who attended a dinner on board the U. S. S. New Orleans Monday evening, Miss Dorothy Capwell, Miss Louise and Miss Helen, Miss Kathryn MacAdam and Lieutenant Peterson were among them, and others. Mr. Robertson was a member of the United States Navy and served on the battleship and officers of the New Orleans.

TEA IN SAN FRANCISCO. Mrs. Horace Clifton will be hostess at a tea in San Francisco tomorrow afternoon in honor of Miss Emmeline Wright, an eastern girl who is visiting her cousin, Miss Helen Wright, a number of Oakland friends have been included in the invitation list.

IN THE SOUTH. Mrs. Charles Straus left several days ago for Southern California to join Mr. Straus, who has been in the south on business. They will spend several weeks visiting points of interest before returning to Oakland.

SUMMER IN ALASKA. Mrs. Gerald Hutton, who has spent the winter in Oakland, will leave in April for Alaska, where she will join Mr. Hutton, whose business interests have kept him in the northern country. She will spend the warm season in Alaska.

IN HONOR OF MISS ACKER. In honor of Miss Helen Ackler, the famous dancer, Mrs. Charles Butters will give an informal tea on Tuesday afternoon, April 6. A score of girls of the younger set will be entertained.

CAIETY CLUB DANCE. The last dance for the season of the Caiety Club will take place at the Twentieth Century Club in Berkeley on the evening of April 9. It will be a larger affair than usual with a number of guests from San Francisco and Oakland. The members of the Caiety are before of an exclusive set of Berkeley, who have given the dances for several seasons.

Wabby Ankles By LILLIAN RUSSELL (Copyright, 1915, by Lillian Russell.)

LILLIAN RUSSELL

WABBY ankles are ugly. They always have an opportunity to show their ugliness. Just now they are brought into special prominence by the tendency to wear short skirts. They are among the ugliest things which can be avoided and remedied.

Women who have wabby ankles do not, as a rule, realize how noticeable they are. They see others, but it is human nature to minimize one's own deficiencies. If women could only take a rear view of themselves while walking, those who are troubled with wabby ankles would soon seek a remedy, or wear shoes which would cover up the weakness.

Slippers and high heels, especially the latter, are largely responsible for this defect. It is a defect which has spread since the combination of low shoes and spats became a fad. This is one of the great objections to spats. They encourage women to wear slippers for walking when they need greater support for their ankles.

You will notice these weakened ankles on the street. They appear in all public places, in the ball-rooms, and in the homes. They interfere with dancing and walking, and make women ungraceful and awkward. They are really the most noticeable than a run down shoe.

Such ankles as these should be encased in tightly laced shoes. They need support. They will continue to wobble and twist until in all public places, in the ball-rooms, and in the homes. They interfere with dancing and walking, and make women ungraceful and awkward. They are really the most noticeable than a run down shoe.

It is folly for women with weak ankles to continually wear slippers. By bracing and keeping them in place for a time they may eventually develop sufficient strength to support the body without wobbling. But they will never become stronger in a high or French heeled slipper.

Men are less troubled than women by wabby ankles. They wear shoes which place less strain on them. If you find this weakness in your ankles, you are assured that your wabbles are noticed by others.

Remember: It is better to wear a neat and sensible shoe than to expose a wabby ankle in the most modish slipper.

Lillian Russell

Answers to Queries

ETHEL: Perspiring hands are due to imperfect circulation. The nerves which control the sweat glands are not doing their duty. Exercise should be taken to improve this condition. The nervous condition here is due to the bathes the hands in alcohol, then dust with talcum powder.

V. C.: It is probably the soap that makes your face feel drawn. I like pure castile soap best for use on the face. If you find that the castile soap does not agree with your skin you don't you discontinue using soap for a while and use oatmeal and bran instead. This is an excellent cleanser and leaves the face soft and smooth. A good skin food massaged into the face every night would take away the roughness. I shall be happy to send you formula for skin food and green soap treatment for blackheads.

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER

Dr. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

as the least harmful of all the skin preparations. Ford T. Higgins & Son, Props., 37 Great Jones St., N.Y.C.

Eiler's HOME OF THE CHICKERING PIANO 1443 San Pablo Ave., Oakland

'DESERT GIRL' WINS DIVORCE FROM DODGE

LOS ANGELES, March 25.—With the "desert girl" and her child, beautiful but unfortunate exhibits in the case, Mrs. Mary Dodge yesterday secured a divorce from Leonard Dodge.

The desert girl was Miss Eva Bradshaw. She is 29 years old. Innocently she told the story that secured the divorce for the other woman. Then she told her own story. While she told of running away from the desolate homestead that her father called home and found herself a stranger in a big city her beautiful black-eyed little girl, Valma, played on the floor of the courtroom.

When she was asked she declared she didn't know, for she doesn't know the city like she does the desert and she is homeless, motherless, brotherless and sisterless and doesn't know of a single relative but her father, whom she declared she feared.

The case opened yesterday with Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand. She said simply that her husband had made the acquaintance of Miss Bradshaw and had left her. They were married seven years ago and have one little girl 4 years old.

MISS BRADSHAW'S STORY. Attorney Joseph Musgrove said he had communicated with Dodge and had been told Dodge will consent to assigning a half interest in an estate he has inherited from an aunt, Cordella Sumner, in place of other alimony.

Miss Bradshaw was then called upon to tell her story. She was slender and athletic. The desert air had given her an enviable complexion. Her eyes were dark and sparkling.

When she was asked she declared she didn't know, for she doesn't know the city like she does the desert and she is homeless, motherless, brotherless and sisterless and doesn't know of a single relative but her father, whom she declared she feared.

The case opened yesterday with Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand. She said simply that her husband had made the acquaintance of Miss Bradshaw and had left her. They were married seven years ago and have one little girl 4 years old.

MISS BRADSHAW'S STORY. Attorney Joseph Musgrove said he had communicated with Dodge and had been told Dodge will consent to assigning a half interest in an estate he has inherited from an aunt, Cordella Sumner, in place of other alimony.

Miss Bradshaw was then called upon to tell her story. She was slender and athletic. The desert air had given her an enviable complexion. Her eyes were dark and sparkling.

When she was asked she declared she didn't know, for she doesn't know the city like she does the desert and she is homeless, motherless, brotherless and sisterless and doesn't know of a single relative but her father, whom she declared she feared.

The case opened yesterday with Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand. She said simply that her husband had made the acquaintance of Miss Bradshaw and had left her. They were married seven years ago and have one little girl 4 years old.

MISS BRADSHAW'S STORY. Attorney Joseph Musgrove said he had communicated with Dodge and had been told Dodge will consent to assigning a half interest in an estate he has inherited from an aunt, Cordella Sumner, in place of other alimony.

Miss Bradshaw was then called upon to tell her story. She was slender and athletic. The desert air had given her an enviable complexion. Her eyes were dark and sparkling.

When she was asked she declared she didn't know, for she doesn't know the city like she does the desert and she is homeless, motherless, brotherless and sisterless and doesn't know of a single relative but her father, whom she declared she feared.

The case opened yesterday with Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand. She said simply that her husband had made the acquaintance of Miss Bradshaw and had left her. They were married seven years ago and have one little girl 4 years old.

MISS BRADSHAW'S STORY. Attorney Joseph Musgrove said he had communicated with Dodge and had been told Dodge will consent to assigning a half interest in an estate he has inherited from an aunt, Cordella Sumner, in place of other alimony.

Miss Bradshaw was then called upon to tell her story. She was slender and athletic. The desert air had given her an enviable complexion. Her eyes were dark and sparkling.

When she was asked she declared she didn't know, for she doesn't know the city like she does the desert and she is homeless, motherless, brotherless and sisterless and doesn't know of a single relative but her father, whom she declared she feared.

The case opened yesterday with Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand. She said simply that her husband had made the acquaintance of Miss Bradshaw and had left her. They were married seven years ago and have one little girl 4 years old.

MISS BRADSHAW'S STORY. Attorney Joseph Musgrove said he had communicated with Dodge and had been told Dodge will consent to assigning a half interest in an estate he has inherited from an aunt, Cordella Sumner, in place of other alimony.

Miss Bradshaw was then called upon to tell her story. She was slender and athletic. The desert air had given her an enviable complexion. Her eyes were dark and sparkling.

When she was asked she declared she didn't know, for she doesn't know the city like she does the desert and she is homeless, motherless, brotherless and sisterless and doesn't know of a single relative but her father, whom she declared she feared.

The case opened yesterday with Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand. She said simply that her husband had made the acquaintance of Miss Bradshaw and had left her. They were married seven years ago and have one little girl 4 years old.

MISS BRADSHAW'S STORY. Attorney Joseph Musgrove said he had communicated with Dodge and had been told Dodge will consent to assigning a half interest in an estate he has inherited from an aunt, Cordella Sumner, in place of other alimony.

Miss Bradshaw was then called upon to tell her story. She was slender and athletic. The desert air had given her an enviable complexion. Her eyes were dark and sparkling.

WEDDING TO BE SOCIAL EVENT WILL UNITE GREAT FORTUNES

MISS CORDELIA BIDDLE of Philadelphia, Who Will Marry Angier Duke, Snapped in Fifth Avenue.

Two great American fortunes will be united in the marriage of Miss Cordelia Biddle, daughter of A. J. Drexel-Biddle of Philadelphia, and Angier Duke of New York, whose engagement was announced this season.

Miss Biddle is a debutante of the winter and is considered one of the most attractive and popular belles of society in the east. She is accomplished and very fond of outdoor sports. Her father is a prominent financier of Philadelphia. Mr. Duke's father is one of the tobacco millionaires whose name is known all over the world. Miss Biddle has been visiting her fiance's family in New York.

Shoes $1.00 Pair

A whirlwind wind-up to the greatest value-giving Shoe Sale ever held in Oakland. The rebuilding operations are over and our store is double its former size. Enlargement Sale ends Saturday.

Tomorrow (and Saturday if quantity lasts) 640 Pairs Women's Shoes to Go at $1.00 Pair Broken lots of 2 or 3 pairs of a kind—satin, velvet and suede boots—patent colt, gunmetal, tan and suede oxfords—tan calf pumps and small sizes in tan, patent colt and gunmetal pumps—not the latest styles—but good looking footwear—former $3.00 to $6.00 values—$1.00 PAIR.

And Hundreds of Pairs Men's & Women's Shoes $1.50 and $1.95

Including some of the latest button and lace styles, in all leathers.

Lewis Sample Shoe Co.

118 WASHINGTON STREET near 12th

No refunds or exchanges on shoes in this sale. Every pair fitted.

D.B. HINCKLEY CALLED BY DEATH

Pioneer Californian, Founder of Fulton Iron Works,
Passes Away.

Daniel B. Hinckley, one of Oakland's foremost citizens, last of the San Francisco vigilantes, founder of the Fulton Iron Works, and who owned the first steamship plying on the Pacific Coast, is dead at his home, 3245 Fruitvale avenue. He succumbed at 7 o'clock last night to an illness which had confined him to the house for many months.

Hinckley, who was 59 years of age, had an interesting career before he rose to be one of the industrial giants of the West. He was born in Hardwick, Mass., and came in 1850 to California around the Horn on the bark Belgrave. He located in San Francisco, establishing the Fulton Iron Works, which was also known under the firm name of Hinckley, Spier & Hayes. A big shipbuilding industry was built up by the partners, the firm turning out many steam schooners, as well as ferries, including the General, the Ukiah, the Sausalito and the Coronado. Turning his mechanical ability to other activities, Hinckley manufactured the first stamp mill, operated in California, at Grass Valley.

He was prominently identified with the upbuilding of San Francisco, and was one of the first to join the vigilante committee formed by citizens for protective purposes. His iron works were situated where the California building at the Exposition now stands.

Hinckley retired a number of years ago, taking up his residence in Fruitvale. His wife died several years ago. He is survived by a son, Harry B. Hinckley, and five grandchildren, Grayson Hinckley, Fritz Hinckley, Miss Helen Hinckley, Miss Marion Hinckley and Miss Georgia Hinckley.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Oakland Crematory. Rev. William D. Simonds will officiate.

The records show Mr. Clyne said today that last year one-third of all the income tax collected in this country was derived from the island of Manhattan. I am determined that Chicago shall make a good showing. I will prosecute the violators of this law."

Julius F. Smistanka, collector of inland revenue, estimated that $15,000,000 in salaries is escaping the tax. The collector said that while deputies have been assigned to make a house-to-house canvass to determine the delinquents.

Alleged Vice Trust Official Arraigned

NEW YORK, March 23.—Mortch Goldberg, whose arraignment was on the calendar today in the Court of Special Sessions, is accused of being an official vice trust which maintained more than forty resorts in this city, controlled nearly 2000 inmates and divided $1,250,000 a year profits. The district attorney's office claims to have evidence that this alleged combine paid nearly $400,000 a year to the police for protection.

Alleged confessions in the district attorney's office assert that the organization maintained fourteen resorts in a single block in Fortieth street and sixteen on Sixth avenue besides many others. It had a pension system and a board of arbitration to settle disputes.

Firebugs at Work; Four Buildings Burn

Fire of incendiary origin destroyed four untenanted houses on Pacific street, adjoining the Southern Pacific Railroad yards, early this morning. The police are working on the case at the request of Assistant Fire Chief Samuel Short, who found evidence that firebugs were the undoubtedly cause.

Although no evidence of kerosene or other inflammable materials was found, Short discovered in one of the houses a fire in the center of the floor of one of the rooms, showing that it must have been placed there by some one desirous of destroying the place.

The houses were shacks and burned rapidly. The fire department had difficulty in confining the flames to the untenanted buildings.

Butter and Eggs
TOMORROW
Royal Creamery,
319 12TH ST.
Branches:
15th and Washington Streets.
2267 East 14th Street
Near 23d Ave.

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER
2 Lbs. 55c
1 Lb. 28c
FANCY EGGS
Eggs 26c
All goods delivered to our milk customers at store prices. By this you can save $2.00 per month.

EX-CHIEF WILSON DIES FORTY YEARS ON FORCE

FORMER CHIEF OF POLICE ADELBERT WILSON, WHO PASSED AWAY AT HIS HOME EARLY THIS MORNING.

Adelbert Wilson, former chief of police of Oakland and for over forty years connected with the Oakland police department, died at his home, 551 Twenty-fifth street, of a complication of diseases. Wilson had been ill for some time and had been under the care of several physicians.

Chief Wilson retired in October two years ago and was succeeded by Chief Peterson. From 1870 until the end of 1912 Wilson was connected with the Oakland police force with but two years interruption and from December 20, 1905, to the time of his retirement he served as chief. Under his rule the department developed an increase in size until it was recognized as one of the best in California.

Wilson was born in Camden, Me., January 8, 1844, where he received his early education and remained until he was 19. He came to San Francisco in 1862, where he was employed by Boswell & Geddes, a firm located at Front and Commercial streets.

Later he went into business for himself and with his brother Edmund owned several newspaper routes in San Francisco and Oakland.

Wilson was appointed to the Oakland police force as a special officer May 30, 1870. He served in that position for about four years and was then appointed to the regular force. In 1877 he was made a sergeant of police and during the political trouble at the time of the Kearney workingmen's movement, he and eighteen officers were discharged from the Oakland police department. He was reinstated only to be dropped and taken on several times, according to the political leaders in power.

Wilson held office as chief during the earthquake year and he had charge of handling the great crowds of refugees who made their way to Oakland. He successfully controlled the lawless element at that time. The magnitude of his task can be understood when it is stated that over 200,000 refugees came to Oakland within three days.

On several occasions when great crowds came to Oakland in connection with various celebrations he handled the situation by putting into effect precautionary measures. After forty years of efficient service Wilson was retired on half pay, October 1, 1912.

Wilson married Miss Mary F. Pool at Whitman, Mass., in 1872. None of their three children survive. Wilson was a thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner, and since February, 1872, has been a member of Oakland Lodge, No. 118, I. O. O. F. Both he and his wife belonged to the Order of Eastern Star and May 30, 1907, he was presented with a valuable diamond set gold shield by the members of the Oakland police force.

Chief Wilson is survived by a widow, Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, a brother, Harry Wilson, of Hayward, and a granddaughter, Miss Adeline Walker, as well as a son-in-law, Wilber Walker, Jr.

THE FUNERAL WILL BE HELD SATURDAY afternoon at the Masonic Temple, under the direction of Oakland Lodge of Masons. The Odd Fellows, with which he was also affiliated, and the Oakland police department will take part in the ceremonies.

Chief Wilson was one of the earliest students of the Berthillon identification system, which, under his regime, was first installed in the Oakland police department. He was noted as a leader of men and an authority on police work.

He was replaced by the present chief of police, Walter J. Peterson, when ill health had forced him to retire after his 40-years' service in the force. Peterson had worked under him as a patrolman, and finally was promoted to be captain of detectives, which position he still holds on the civil service rating. Ex-Chief Wilson was the guest of honor at the last police review held by the Oakland department, at which time he praised his old force on their organization, records and efficiency.

Several meetings were held this week in the interest of J. A. L. Lloyd, union candidate for commissioner No. 2. Mrs. Ed Ross of 1501 Market street, gave a house party this week in his honor, and Mrs. George Haskell, 514 East Nineteenth street, also invited friends to meet the candidate on Tuesday.

Dr. Minora Kibbe presided at a meeting at Laurel school Tuesday, to which Lloyd was invited, and Mrs. F. C. Schoensted, 32 Monte Vista, had seven-five guests at her residence to meet him.

The executive committee of the Golden Gate Non-Partisan Civic League also had a meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. C. Schoensted, 32 Monte Vista, on Wednesday.

time he praised his old force on their organization, records and efficiency. He was seen about the department after his retirement, his advice often guiding the present police administration during times of perplexity.

PHYSICIANS OAKLAND MAN BATTLE WITH MANIAC SUICIDE IN SPOKANE

Warden of Emergency Hospital
Insane Ward Frustrates Escape.

With physical force and strength, which required three men to subdue him, H. A. Evans, a painter, who lives at 6012 College avenue, wrecked one of the detention wards at the emergency hospital this morning in an attempt to escape.

Charles A. Emley, warden of the insane, arrived on the scene as Evans had broken through a double partition by prying off the sheathing. When Emley opened the heavy door, Evans became quiet and requested permission to leave the room for a minute. Suddenly he made a dash for the hallway and the warden grappled with him.

Dr. Cone and Steward Davidson, hearing the commotion, hastened to the assistance of Emley, and the three men struggled with the patient for five minutes before he was securely strapped to a cot to prevent his doing further damage.

Physicians who examined Evans yesterday were in doubt as to his mental condition and permission for his release was given. But the police asked that he be held, as there is a warrant against him for assault.

Charles Wood, 6019 Harvard street, complained yesterday that Evans had visited his home the evening before, and after asking for Mrs. Evans, who was not there, attacked Wood. Neighbors were called in, and Evans was expelled from the house after a struggle. He was then taken into custody by the police on suspicion of insanity.

Japan Justifies Its Position in China

By Associated Press.
TOKIO, March 23.—The chief points of the American communication addressed to Japan concerning Japan's demands on China have been cabled to Tokyo by the Japanese ambassador at Washington. The communication has been instructed to explain that Japan's position does not conflict with the American agreement.

The American ambassador, George Guthrie, has had a conference with Baron Kato, the foreign minister. Japan's documentary reply probably will be withheld until after the arrival of the text of the American note.

WAR OPENED ON HOTEL PIRATES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Drastic action will be taken to punish any hotel that violates its agreement with the Exposition and attempts to charge exorbitant and unusual rates.

This announcement was made yesterday afternoon by the Official Exposition Hotel Bureau.

At a meeting of the convention committee of the Press Club of San Francisco, called yesterday to investigate the rumors concerning alleged extortionate hotel rates the committee pledged itself to investigate every alleged violation of the agreement made by the hotel men and so give as wide publicity as possible to the names of the offending hotel if the complaint was verified.

AGREEMENT INVOLVES LISTING.
The following statement from the hotel bureau of the Exposition was read and endorsed by the committee:

"Two hundred and four of the prominent hotels, rooming and apartment houses of San Francisco and vicinity have registered in the Official Exposition Hotel Bureau and entered into an agreement to ask reasonable rates and to maintain those rates during 1915.

William T. Dickson, Former Manager of Local Firm,
Kills Self.

William T. Dickson, former manager of the local firm of Dickson & Bull, manufacturers of artificial limbs, committed suicide in a Spokane hotel sometime yesterday, his body having been found late last night, according to dispatches received here today.

Dickson leaves a mother, sister, Miss Jennie Dickson, and brother, Walter W. Dickson, living at 591 Jones street. His former partner, A. F. Bull, is a resident of Oakland and at present head of the firm.

Dickson went to Spokane a short time ago to take charge of the company's branch office in that city and to resign the local manager who came to Oakland.

A note found beside the body of the dead man left instructions that his family in Oakland be notified, but did not give the name or address, and for that reason it was believed by the police that the suicide had been laboring under some mental strain.

A solution of cyanide of potassium remaining in a bottle found beside the body was the medium of the suicide. Dickson was 45 years of age, and was born in Vallejo.

According to A. F. Bull, his former partner, Dickson had been suffering for some time past with chronic appendicitis, but aside from that he knew of no reason for the suicide. Bull purchased Dickson's interest in the local company at the time and he went to Spokane, taking in exchange the Spokane branch.

MANY MEETINGS HELD FOR CANDIDATE LLOYD

Several meetings were held this week in the interest of J. A. L. Lloyd, union candidate for commissioner No. 2. Mrs. Ed Ross of 1501 Market street, gave a house party this week in his honor, and Mrs. George Haskell, 514 East Nineteenth street, also invited friends to meet the candidate on Tuesday.

Dr. Minora Kibbe presided at a meeting at Laurel school Tuesday, to which Lloyd was invited, and Mrs. F. C. Schoensted, 32 Monte Vista, had seven-five guests at her residence to meet him.

The executive committee of the Golden Gate Non-Partisan Civic League also had a meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. C. Schoensted, 32 Monte Vista, on Wednesday.

time he praised his old force on their organization, records and efficiency. He was seen about the department after his retirement, his advice often guiding the present police administration during times of perplexity.

Detailed plans for the funeral are now being made by the police and lodgesmen, who will take charge of the ceremonies of Saturday.

Wilson left a request that the following should act as his pallbearers: Mayor Frank K. Miller, Commissioner Harry S. Anderson, Chief Walter J. Peterson, Lincoln S. Church and Ben Johnson. The Odd Fellows will officiate at the cremation after the Masonic service.

CAFE REX

OPARRELL ST AT STOCKTON
OPPOSITE ORPHEUM THEATRE

AMPLIFIED SERVICE & ENTERTAINMENT
1914 PRICES
NO ADVANCE

SAN FRANCISCO'S NEWEST RESTAURANT

Cafe Rex presents the farthest advance in the science and art of restaurant building, equipment, decoration and arrangement.

New Ideas in service, facilities and entertainment. Everything new but the men in charge. Under the management of whose experience and knowledge is the guarantee that in Cafe Rex you will be served promptly and well.

HERBERT MEYERFELD AND GUSTAV MANN,

OPENS POSITIVELY THURSDAY, APRIL FIRST
OPENING DINNER AND "SOIREE CARNIVAL"

Dinner at $3.00 per cover, served beginning 6:30 p. m.

TABLE RESERVATIONS FOR OPENING CAN BE MADE NOW ON THE PREMISES

TAFT & PENNOYER COMPANY

SPECIAL
LADIES' SPRING
Neckwear 55¢

$1.25 Values at

This is a special line of imported hand embroidered Neckwear shown in roll styles and felt sailors. It comprises a large assortment of patterns, hand embroidered on Swiss and Pique. These qualities would ordinarily be represented by prices up to $1.25 at least. Owing to a particularly fortunate purchase we are enabled to offer them at an attractive Price of, while they last 55¢
—Ladies' Neckwear Section—First Floor.

New Style Robes

For Traveling and Beach Purposes

These are shown in our Men's Haberdashery Department but are to be used alike by men and women. They are long belted robes made from a fine quality crepe warranted to wash well. They are shown in blazer stripes of blue, green or tan with white, or in solid colors of tan and blue with cuffs, reverses and pocket tops of a different color. They are exceptionally compact when rolled into a small bundle and the material will not crush. They are used to wear over the costume in automobiles, for dressing robes on sleeping cars and steamers and for ordinary morning robes. See them. They are something new and very attractive. PRICED, EACH $3.50
—Men's Furnishing Section—First Floor.

CHINAWARE SECTION

Easter Novelties for Table Decoration

China Roses in pink, red or yellow. Two Roses and two Buds on a stem. Can be illuminated for table use. Priced. 95¢
Single Roses in pink, red or yellow, same as above 45¢
Small fancy China Baskets trimmed with Edelweiss flowers, carnations or roses, priced 40¢
Bon Bon Baskets, trimmed with roses, priced 95¢
Yard long Wreaths of roses, pink, yellow, red or white. 95¢
—China Section—Third Floor.

EASTER STATIONERY

Booklets, Postals, Place Cards, Eggs & Favors

We show a most complete stock of the newest innovations for the present Easter season. Many of them are imported and the egg novelties are especially attractive. In the display will be found eggs for eating (only the purest sugar and creams are carried by us), panoramic eggs, rabbits, chickens, containers for candies, Easter toys, table favors and all kinds of decorations.

Easter Cards from 1c to 25c
Easter Postals from 1c to 10c
Easter Ice Containers from 5c to 25c
Easter Place Cards from, the dozen 35c to 75c
Easter Candy Containers from, each 5c to $1.00
Imported Easter Novelties in filled Eggs, all sizes, from, each 35c to $5.00
—Stationery Section—First Floor.

CLAY at 14TH and 15TH

AUCTION SALES

J. A. MUNRO & CO. AUCTIONEERS

1007 Clay street, corner Tenth street; phone Oakland 4571, will pay highest price paid for merchandise, furniture, etc., or will sell on commission. Sales every Friday.

CHATTELE MORTGAGE AUCTION SALE

Of the fine furniture, pianos, carpets, rugs and bedding of a large apartment house. Sale at 1007 Clay street, corner Tenth street, Oakland.

Sale Friday, March 26th
At 10:30 A. M.

Open for inspection Thursday afternoon and evening.

Comprising, in part: Two fine upright pianos, carpets, rugs, lace curtains, fine line of bedding, odd parlor pieces, odd dressers, chiffoniers and folding beds, round oak dining tables, chairs and buffets, china and glass ware, gas and steel ranges, etc., etc.

ALL MUST AND WILL BE SOLD.
J. A. MUNRO & CO., Auctioneers.

FOR A "JITNEY"

or two a day you can dress yourself in style.

Why Don't You?

Newest Spring Styles--Men's and Young Men's
SUITS AND OVERCOATS

PAY $1.00 A WEEK

Small Deposit Down—Easiest Credit Plan

COLUMBIA OUTFITTING CO.

385 12TH STREET, NEAR FRANKLIN.

FOR A "JITNEY"

or two a day you can dress yourself in style.

Why Don't You?

Newest Spring Styles--Men's and Young Men's
SUITS AND OVERCOATS

PAY $1.00 A WEEK

Small Deposit Down—Easiest Credit Plan

COLUMBIA OUTFITTING CO.

385 12TH STREET, NEAR FRANKLIN.

your roses lately? Have you noticed the arrival of those dear little green bugs that eat up the leaves? "Sure ain't they!" Too bad to hedge to kill them so young, but it's the bug or the rose. The easiest way to send them into bug-heaven is to use Bowman's Rose Spray after sunset—25c a bottle and guaranteed not to hurt the roses.	relie and a couple of hampers? A man who is traveling is generally judged by his luggage. We sell good leather suit cases and grips from $5.00 up. We also carry cane and matting suit cases at $2.90 and $1.50 up respectively.	as well. It contains no harmful ingredients. A good many men use it after shaving—25c and 50c a bottle. (P. S.—The 50c bottles are on special sale tomorrow and Saturday at 33c. This gives you a good opportunity to try it.)	job is generally spread out over the year. However, there are a few of us who still stick to our old New England ideas and with the coming of Spring we beat the carpets, scrub the walls and work our heads and hands and feet almost off. Therefore we always have on hand a full stock of all house cleaning items at Bowman's prices.
--	---	--	--